

The Godhead

Look up "Godhead" in True to the Faith. Record what you learn about the nature of the Godhead here.

- God the Father, Jesus Christ, and the Holy Ghost preside over this world and all other creations of our Father in Heaven.
- The true doctrine of the Godhead was lost in the apostasy that followed the Savior's mortal ministry and the deaths of His Apostles.
- This doctrine began to be restored when 14-year-old Joseph Smith received his First Vision.
- From the Prophet's account of the First Vision and from his other teachings, we know that the members of the Godhead are three separate beings.
- The Father and the Son have tangible bodies of flesh and bones, and the Holy Ghost is a personage of spirit (see D&C 130:22).
- Although the members of the Godhead are distinct beings with distinct roles, they are one in purpose and doctrine.
- They are perfectly united in bringing to pass Heavenly Father's divine plan of salvation.

APOSTASY

OTHER CHRISTIAN BELIEFS

What does Elder Jeffrey R. Holland teach you about what other Christians believe about the Godhead in his talk, "The Only True God and Jesus Christ Whom He Hath Sent", from the October 2007 General Conference?

- In the year A.D. 325 the Roman emperor Constantine convened the Council of Nicaea to address—among other things—the growing issue of God's alleged "trinity in unity." What emerged from the heated contentions of churchmen, philosophers, and ecclesiastical dignitaries came to be known (after another 125 years and three more major councils) as the Nicene Creed, with later reformulations such as the Athanasian Creed. These various evolutions and iterations of creeds—and others to come over the centuries—declared the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost to be abstract, absolute, transcendent, immanent, consubstantial, coeternal, and unknowable, without body, parts, or passions and dwelling outside space and time. In such creeds all three members are separate persons, but they are a single being, the oft-noted "mystery of the trinity." They are three distinct persons, yet not three Gods but one. All three persons are incomprehensible, yet it is one God who is incomprehensible.

With such a confusing definition of God being imposed upon the church, little wonder that a fourth-century monk cried out, "Woe is me! They have taken my God away from me. ... and I know not whom to adore or to address." How are we to trust, love, worship, to say nothing of strive to be like, One who is incomprehensible and unknowable?
