Muslim Travellers Pilgrimage Migration And The Religious Imagination:

Muslim Travellers Dale F. Eickelman, James P. Piscatori, 1990-10-08 The contributors explore the transnational and local significance of pilgrimage and migration showing how these journeys heighten a universal sense of being Muslim while also inspiring the redefinition of the frontiers of sect language territory and nation In this way encounters with Muslim others have been as important in shaping community self definition as encounters with European others Pilgrimage and Religious Travel: Oxford Bibliographies Online Research Guide Yousef Meri, 2010-05 This ebook is a selective guide designed to help scholars and students of Islamic studies find reliable sources of information by directing them to the best available scholarly materials in whatever form or format they appear from books chapters and journal articles to online archives electronic data sets and blogs Written by a leading international authority on the subject the ebook provides bibliographic information supported by direct recommendations about which sources to consult and editorial commentary to make it clear how the cited sources are interrelated related A reader will discover for instance the most reliable introductions and overviews to the topic and the most important publications on various areas of scholarly interest within this topic In Islamic studies as in other disciplines researchers at all levels are drowning in potentially useful scholarly information and this guide has been created as a tool for cutting through that material to find the exact source you need This ebook is a static version of an article from Oxford Bibliographies Online Islamic Studies a dynamic continuously updated online resource designed to provide authoritative guidance through scholarship and other materials relevant to the study of the Islamic religion and Muslim cultures Oxford Bibliographies Online covers most subject disciplines within the social science and humanities for more information visit www.aboutobo.com Reframing Pilgrimage European Association of Social Anthropologists, 2004 This book proposes a radical new agenda for pilgrimage studies considering such travel as just one of the twenty first century s many forms of cultural mobility Prioritizing anthropological arguments about mobility locality and belonging over analyses of traditional religious studies contributors examine the meanings of pilgrimage in world religions as well as in non religious contexts such as roots tourism P 1 Transnational Muslim Politics Peter G. Mandaville, 2003-08-27 This radical book argues that translocal forces are leading the emergence of a wider Muslim public sphere It will be invaluable for researchers in international relations Islamic studies cultural studies sociology religion and politics Muslim Networks and Transnational Communities in and Across Europe Stefano Allievi, Jørgen S. Nielsen, 2003 This collection of twelve papers provides case studies and thematic reflections on the growing transnational networking of European Muslims and their involvement with contemporary global Islam The volume pays particular attention to the mechanisms and significance of this phenomenon Theology of Migration in the Abrahamic Religions E. Padilla, P. Phan, 2014-10-02 This book provides an indispensable voice in the scholarly conversation on migration It shows how migration has shaped and has been shaped by the three Abrahamic religions Judaism Christianity and Islam No theory of migration will be complete unless the theological insights of these religions are seriously taken into account Image and Pilgrimage in Christian Culture Victor Turner, Edith Turner, 2011-11-08 First published in 1978 Image and Pilgrimage in Christian Culture is a classic work examining the theological doctrines popular notions and corresponding symbols and images promoting and sustaining Christian pilgrimage The book examines two major aspects of pilgrimage practice the significance of context or the theological conditions giving rise to pilgrimage and the folk traditions enabling worshippers to absorb the meaning of the event and the images and symbols embodying the experience of pilgrimage and transmitting its visions in varying ways Retelling its own tales of mere mortals confronted by potent visions such as the man Juan Diego who found redemption with the Lady of Guadalupe and the poor French shepherdess Bernadette whose encounter with the Lady at Lourdes inspired Christians across the globe this text treats religious visions as both paradox and empowering phenomena tying them explicitly to the times in which they occurred Offering vivid vignettes of social history it extends their importance beyond the realm of the religious to our own conceptions of reality Extensively revised throughout this edition includes a new introduction by the theologian Deborah Ross situating the book within the work of Victor and Edith Turner and among the movements of contemporary culture She addresses the study's legacy within the discipline especially its hermeneutical framework which introduced a novel method of describing and interpreting pilgrimage She also credits the Turners with cementing the link between mysticism popular devotion and Christian culture as well as their recognition of the relationship between pilgrimage and the deep spiritual needs of human beings She concludes with various critiques of the Turners work and suggests future directions for research The Influence Of Human Mobility In Muslim Societies Kuroki Hidemitsu, 2013-11-05 First Published in 2003 This volume explores various aspects of human mobility both spatial and social in Muslim societies from the earliest Islamic period to the present times In general a high mobility among Muslims has been observed throughout their history to say nothing of the fact that the pilgrimage to Mecca is one of the five religious duties or that many Muslim travelers such as Ibn Battuta moved over vast areas However the social and political impact of their movement voluntary or forced has rarely been analyzed in terms of a multi disciplinary approach Researchers specializing in history anthropology sociology psychology and politics from eight countries have contributed their insights on both Muslim and non Muslim mobility in this multi faceted volume which will shed new light on the meaning of mobility and the movement of human beings in the even more globalized world of today

Religious Tourism Tzung-Cheng (TC) Huan, Anestis K. Fotiadis, Nikolaos Stylos, 2024-12-09 This thought provoking book embarks into the captivating world of religious tourism and explores the intricate relationship between travel and spirituality shedding light on whether tourists are seekers of profound meaning or simply pleasure seekers In first section of the book the chapters delve into the complex dynamics of pilgrimage landscapes the significance of sacred heritage sites and the evolving role of tourism in religious experiences Part II of the volume digs deeper into the spiritual dimensions of religious tourism examining the restorative benefits of spiritual retreats the anthropology of spirituality and tourism and the motivations of modern day pilgrims Written in an accessible style this volume invites readers from all backgrounds to explore the profound impact of religious tourism on individuals and societies alike Engaging and enlightening this volume is a must read for anyone intrigued by the intersection of travel and spirituality The chapters in this book were originally published in Tourism Recreation Research Can Muslims Think? Muneeb Hafiz,2022-06-14 As Europe goes astray deeply conflicted about where it is within and with the world it does not know what it wants to know about or do with the racial subject In this situation the Muslim becomes an intense source of anxiety one that is at once terrifying and called to answer for Europe s existential fear of relegation Islamophobia thus represents both the racism constitutive of European modernity and is also symptomatic of contemporary transformations in racist power knowledge and governance propelled by technologies and economies of endless wars on terror But how might the Muslim speak about the world its past and unfolding terrors Which questions must she answer and which answers does Europe deem acceptable Presenting a speculative theory of the post racial subject of Islamophobia Can Muslims Think is an attempt to build a vocabulary for analyzing the complexities of racism today its potential futurity and techniques for its dismantling
