Kohen-Gordon,2001-01-20 La Concierge is a diary like book of fictionalized life like figures around whom revolve other individuals permanent presences or passersby engaged in their daily trivial or not so trivial activities It somewhat reminds one of books written by the French author Fran oise Sagan who became an instant success with her triad Bonjour Tristesse Un Certain Sourire and Aimez vous Brahms subtle character novels encompassing young girl diaries experiences night scenes of Sorbonne students endless sequences of dance spots and nightclubs until the wee hours love triangles and quadrangles The book is a mini version of Balzac s or Saroyan s Comedie Humaine and Human Comedy It is a sort of candid camera of the heart and modern mores more similar to camcorder images The collection of characters met as they come to pass around the Concierge desk also reminiscent of XVIIth century s La Bruyere s Caracteres Characters With parading personages from the most attractive and personable to the exquisitely obnoxious the space around the Concierge desk is a living observation laboratory of psychological images and situations In this multiplicity of scenarios somehow similarly to La Bruyere s work the unifying thread is the master idea to expose the ridiculous and the false which in daily activities despite their meaninglessness arouse much passion and controversy

The Courtship Novel, 1740-1820 Katherine Sobba Green,2021-10-21 The period from her first London assembly to her wedding day was the narrow span of autonomy for a middle class Englishwoman in the eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries For many women as Katherine Sobba Green shows the new ideal of companionate marriage involved such thoroughgoing revisions in self perception that a new literary form was needed to represent their altered roles That the choice among suitors ideally depended on love and should not be decided on any other grounds was a principal theme among a group of heroine centered novels published between 1740 and 1820 During these decades some two dozen writers most of them women published such courtship novels Specifically aiming them at young women readers these novelists took as their common purpose the disruption of established ideas about how dutiful daughters and prudent young women should comport themselves during courtship Reading a wide range of primary texts Green argues that the courtship novel was a feminized genre written about by and for women She challenges contemporary readers to appreciate the subtleties of early feminism in novels by Eliza Haywood Mary Collyer Charlotte Lennox Samuel Richardson Frances Brooke Fanny Burney Mary Wollstonecraft Jane West Mary Brunton Maria Edgeworth and Jane Austen to recognize that these courtship novelists held in common a desire to reimagine the subject positions through which women understood themselves
