Contemporary Art Mark Staff Brandl, 2023-02-23 Metaphor which allows us to talk about things by comparing them to other things is one of the most ubiquitous and adaptable features of language and thought It allows us to clarify meaning yet also evaluate and transform the ways we think create and act While we are alert to metaphor in spoken or written texts it has within the visual arts been critically overlooked Taking into consideration how metaphors are inventively embodied in the formal technical and stylistic aspects of visual artworks Mark Staff Brandl shows how extensively artists rely on creative metaphor within their work Exploring the work of a broad variety of artists including Dawoud Bey Dan Ramirez Ga lle Villedary Raoul Deal Sonya Clark Titus Kaphar Charles Boetschi and more he argues that metaphors are the foundation of visual thought are chiefly determined by bodily and environmental experiences and are embodied in artistic form Visual artistic creation is philosophical thought By grounding these arguments in the work of philosophers and cultural theorists including No 1 Carroll Hans Georg Gadamer and George Lakoff Brandl shows how important metaphor is to understanding contemporary art A Philosophy of Visual Metaphor in Contemporary Art takes a neglected feature of the visual arts and shows us what a vital role it plays within them Bridging theory and practice and drawing upon a capacious array of examples this book is essential reading for art historians and practitioners as well as analytic philosophers working in aesthetics and meaning

Museums and Societal Collapse Robert R. Janes, 2023-10-02 Museums and Societal Collapse explores the implications of societal collapse from a multidisciplinary perspective and considers the potential museums have to contribute to the reimagining and transitioning of a new society with the threat of collapse Arguing that societal collapse is underway but that total collapse is not inevitable Janes maintains that museums are well positioned to mitigate and adapt to the disruptions of societal collapse As institutions of the commons belonging to and affecting the public at large he contends that museums are both responsible and capable of contributing to the durability and well being of individuals families and communities and enhancing societal resilience in the face of critical issues confronting our species Within the pages of this groundbreaking book Janes demonstrates how museums and their staff as key civic resources with ethical responsibilities can examine the meaning and value of their work how that work is organized and managed and to what end This is a call to action demonstrating how museums can move the conversation about collapse into society at large Museums and Societal Collapse will be essential reading for museum professionals working in museums and galleries as well as for cultural and civil society organizations around the world It will also be an essential reading for academics and students of Museum and Heritage Studies Gallery Studies Heritage Management and Arts Management
