Beauty Kris Calvert, 2015-10-07 Inspired by actual events. From 1911 to 1933, 166 patients, mostly mentally challenged girls, left the Rosewood Asylum for the Feeble Minded outside of Baltimore, Maryland, under writs of habeas corpus to unknowingly become slaves for the bluebloods of Baltimore society. When it was finally discovered, only 102 girls could be accounted for; the other 64 were never located or heard from again. When Eliza Lovelace bought a turn-of-the-century home in Baltimore, her only wish was to bring the building that seemed to call to her back to life. A novelist and part-time house renovator, she and her artist boyfriend Ray have decided to give their on-again-off-again relationship the loving care it deserves by moving in together and away from New York City. But the house on Park Avenue is filled with secrets, and when strange things start happening, Eliza becomes unknowingly entangled in a monovalent past and entwined with another soul. Staring down the face of pure evil, something inside the beautiful home she's mortgaged her life on wants her dead. Between the world that Eliza can see and the one she can only feel lies the truth of Park Avenue. Can the shared bond between two women separated by one hundred years be the key to saving both their souls? After all, one girl's dream could be another's nightmare.

Jane Doe Kris Calvert, 2017-10-06 Left as a newborn to die in a dumpster, she has no name. Tossed from state-run orphanages to a string of foster homes, she has no family. Growing up hard, fast, and street-smart, she's accomplished in hand-to-hand combat and accurate with a gun. With no money for college, she enlisted in the US Marine Corps out of high school and was quickly plucked from her unit when her sharp shooting and intellectual skills outshined her male counterparts. With no known past, she is deemed a perfect fit to a task force Washington denies exists: A selective assassin for the United States government. Jane Doe tracks known terrorists on domestic soil. Dispatched to Atlanta, Georgia, with a kill assignment, Jane is tracking number Thirteen on The List. Her cover is secure in the library where she volunteers, and her identity quiet until a journalist shows up on a tip to research a name and number she knows well: Three. Now she'll be forced to choose between the target she desperately wants to eliminate for personal reasons and the assignment she's been given all while keeping the reporter from getting himself killed or worse: falling for Jane. Possessing a fertile imagination and a penchant for executing improvised but brilliant plans, Jane is a killing machine with ice running through her veins. Every time she goes to a different town, two things are certain: she'll have a new name, and someone is going to die.
