Pamela The Palm Tree Denise Loy Buchanan Ph D C,2015-12-19 Denise Buchanan grew up on the island of Jamaica where palm trees were prevalent and so too were hurricanes Denise has always been fascinated by nature and its rich guiding principles which interweave with our life s journey and she unravels in poetic verse the story of Pamela the Palm Tree who confronts a storm and what it takes for her to emerge stronger in the end Art, Power, and Resistance in the Middle Ages Pamela A. Patton,2025-01-07 This volume addresses a vital point of intersection between images in the Middle Ages and those in the modern world the potential of medieval works of art to convey messages of power and resistance Provoked by the misuse of medieval imagery in modern discussions the contributors to this volume assess how medieval images connect to discourses of power in both the past and the present The contributors each began with a single question In the eyes of their makers and viewers how were medieval images understood to assert or to resist forces of power Their case studies come from a wide range of cultural geographic and historical contexts the Byzantine Ottonian and Valois courts the Umayyad and Castilian regimes of the Iberian Peninsula the pluralistic military and commercial zones of the eastern Mediterranean and the metaphorical as well as personal battlegrounds linked to medieval courtly love culture Over eight chapters the authors highlight patterns of visual rhetoric still evident in art today They invite readers to contemplate how modern priorities and sensibilities might amplify mute or transform the discourses related to power and resistance that were threaded through the visual culture of the Middle Ages This insightful book should be of value to anyone interested in medieval art history and art s relationship to power and authority in society In addition to the editor the contributors include Heather A Badamo Elena N Boeck Thomas E A Dale Martha Easton Eliza Garrison Anne D Hedeman Tom Nickson and Avinoam Shalem Medicine: in Search of a Soul Pamela J. Maraldo,2017-09-25 We are taught that external conditions or people are to blame for our illnesses and pain While other people and situations can affect the quality of your energy field it is within your power to train your mind and emotions and adapt your inner feelings to let go of whatever is hurting you Essentially all you have to do is raise the frequency of your energy field You are we all are an energetic reflection of your own attitudes and feelings Whatever you focus on is brought to life Our brains are holographic living in a holographic universe Our physical world is made solid by our senses as if you put on 3 D glasses New scientific studies tell us that the observation of a particle is what makes it solid The tangible is born of the intangible our thoughts attitudes and feelings as well as our physical bodies are a reflection of the quality of our energies our vibrational resonance our consciousness There is nothing that can t be healed if you can change your frame of mind and the way you feel Sara Baartman and the Hottentot Venus Clifton Crais,Pamela Scully,2021-10-12 Displayed on European stages from 1810 to 1815 as the Hottentot Venus Sara Baartman was one of the most famous women of her day and also one of the least known As the Hottentot Venus she was seen by Westerners as alluring and primitive a reflection of their fears and suppressed desires But who was Sara Baartman

Who was the woman who became the Hottentot Venus Based on research and interviews that span three continents Sara Baartman and the Hottentot Venus tells the entwined histories of an elusive life and a famous icon In doing so the book raises questions about the possibilities and limits of biography for understanding those who live between and among different cultures In reconstructing Baartman s life the book traverses the South African frontier and its genocidal violence cosmopolitan Cape Town the ending of the slave trade the Industrial Revolution the French Revolution the Napoleonic Wars London and Parisian high society and the rise of racial science The authors discuss the ramifications of discovering that when Baartman went to London she was older than originally assumed and they explore the enduring impact of the Hottentot Venus on ideas about women race and sexuality The book concludes with the politics involved in returning Baartman s remains to her home country and connects Baartman s story to her descendants in nineteenth and twentieth century South Africa Sara Baartman and the Hottentot Venus offers the authoritative account of one woman s life and reinstates her to the full complexity of her history
