Reimagining Israel and Palestine in Contemporary British and German Culture Isabelle Hesse, 2024-03-05 Isabelle Hesse identifies an important relational turn in British and German literature TV drama and film published and produced since the First Palestinian Intifada 1987 1993 This turn manifests itself on two levels one in representing Israeli and Palestinian histories and narratives as connected rather than separate and two by emphasising the links between the current situation in Israel and the Occupied Palestinian Territories and the roles that the United Kingdom and Germany have played historically and continue to play in the region This relational turn constitutes a significant shift in representations of Israel and Palestine in British and German culture as these depictions move beyond an engagement with the Holocaust and Jewish suffering at the expense of Palestinian suffering and indicate a willingness to represent and acknowledge British and German involvement in Israeli and Palestinian politics This book offers new ways of thinking about how Israel and Palestine are imagined and reimagined as topics of cultural and political interest in two countries that have had complicated histories with both Israel and Palestine histories which are marked by each country's memories of the Holocaust and colonialism

Documentary Cinema in Israel-Palestine Shirly Bahar, 2021-07-01 Alongside the upsurge in violence that came with the downfall of the Oslo era in the early 2000s a new wave of documentaries emerged that centered on Palestinians and Mizrahim's Jews of Middle Eastern origins historical and lived experiences of pain and oppression across Israel Palestine and beyond The documentaries challenge the systemic removal of self-represented Palestinian and Mizrahi pain from mainstream media and the public realm dominated by Israel This book explores how Palestinians and Mizrahim perform their long-endured pain on screen Analysing key documentary films from the first decade of the 2000s Shirly Bahar offers a nuanced reading of the cinematic documentary corpus emerging from Israel Palestine as well as Palestinians and Mizrahim's different and unequal yet interrelated forms of oppression and racialization under Israeli rule While pain sets them apart the documentary representations of pain of Palestinians and Mizrahim invite us to consider reconnection by focusing on the very relational nature of pain artistic production in this context are informed by profound imbalances of power and contingent exposure to violence Viewing expressive culture as a potent site for understanding these dynamics the book examines the politics of sound to show how music making reflects and forms identities and in the process shapes communities The ethnography is based on fieldwork conducted in Israel and the West Bank in 2011 2012 and other excursions since then Author has followed the conflict by following the music from concert halls to demonstrations mixed city community centers to Palestinian refugee camp children s clubs alternative urban scenes and even a checkpoint In all the different contexts presented the monograph is thematically and theoretically underpinned by the ways in which music is used to culturally assert or reterritorialize both spatial and social boundaries in a situation of conflict
