

MAY 2020 PROFESSIONAL EXAMINATIONS
PUBLIC SECTOR ACCOUNTING AND FINANCE (PAPER 2B)
CHIEF EXAMINER'S REPORT, QUESTIONS AND MARKING SCHEME

GENERAL COMMENTS

The overall standard of the paper was very good and the performance of the candidates has improved over the previous examination's performance. However, the performance falls below expectations.

STANDARD OF THE PAPER

The paper contained five (5) questions with eleven (11) sub-questions and 24 half-mark questions. The standard of the paper is comparable to previously administered ones. The marks allocated were consistent with the weights assigned in the syllabus. The marks were fairly allocated to each question, sub-questions and half-mark questions. The questions were clear, unambiguous, free of errors and well typed.

PERFORMANCE OF CANDIDATES

The general performance of the candidates in the paper was below expectations. However, it was better than the previous examination's performance. In all 1,580 candidates sat for the paper and 23.26% were successful compared with 9.03% in the previous examination. Performance has therefore improved by 154%. This may be explained by the publication of the study manual and question bank of public sector accounting and finance by the Institute.

NOTABLE STRENGTHS & WEAKNESSES OF CANDIDATES

An analysis of the performance reveals the strengths and weaknesses of the Candidates. Most candidates were good at financial reporting in the public sector. In the second part, the candidates were asked to prepare set of financial statements from financial information of a Municipal Assembly and almost all did very well in it. Candidates were also comfortable with questions on public procurement, public-private partnership (PPP) and accounting policies of cash and accrual accounting system.

There are some general weaknesses of Candidates in the examinations. Most candidates failed to read and understand the questions well before providing answers. As a result, they deviated from the requirements of the questions. For example, question 1(a) asked candidates to explain two (2) functions of the Internal Audit Agency based on required by the Internal Audit Agency Act 2003, Act 608, but most candidates were providing the functions of Internal Audit Agency under the law. This clearly showed that they did not read the questions carefully. Similarly, question 1(b) was poorly understood by candidates because they failed to read the question carefully. Another weakness observed was that candidates were not able to organise and communicate their ideas clearly and professionally in their write-ups. Further, reflection of the performance of candidates in the poor preparation towards the examinations. The candidates lack in-depth knowledge of the subject and therefore found it difficult to answer practical questions.
