Purposes, Means and Convictions in Daoism Florian C. Reiter, 2007 Purposes Means and Convictions in Daoism A Berlin Symposium II contains twelve articles that represent contributions of international scholars who specialise in studies of religious Daoism In 2005 they participated in a symposium with the same title that the Seminar für Sinologie at Humboldt University Berlin staged with the support of the Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft DFG Bonn The two parts of the book Historical and Ritual Traditions I and Varieties of Religious Activities and Functions II mirror the understanding of the basic themes as developed during the symposium and the ensuing discussions The articles cover periods and developments from the beginning of the religious Daoism up to the late 19th century The four Chinese contributions are accompanied by English summaries

The Emergence of Daoism Gil Raz, 2012-03-15 At the core of Daoism are ancient ideas concerning the Way the fundamental process of existence the Dao Humans as individuals and as a society should be aligned with the Dao in order to attain the fullness of life and its potential This book presents the history of early Daoism tracing the development of the tradition between the first and the fifth centuries CE This book discusses the emergence of several Daoist movements during this period including the relatively well known Way of the Celestial Master that appeared in the second century and the Upper Clarity and the Numinous Treasure lineages that appeared in the fourth century These labels are very difficult to determine socially and they obscure the social reality of early medieval China that included many more lineages This book argues that these lineages should be understood as narrowly defined associations of masters and disciples and it goes on to describe these diverse social groupings as communities of practice Shedding new light on a complex and multifaceted phenomenon the formation of Daoism as a new religion in early medieval China this book presents a major step forward in Daoist Studies

China John Lagerwey, 2010-12-01 Over the last 40 years our vision of Chinese culture and history has been transformed by the discovery of the role of religion in Chinese state making and in local society The Daoist religion in particular long despised as superstitious has recovered its place as the native higher religion But while the Chinese state tried from the fifth century on to construct an orthodoxy based on Confucianism Daoism and Buddhism local society everywhere carved out for itself its own geomantically defined space and organized itself around local festivals in honor of gods of its own choosing gods who were often invented and then represented by illiterate mediums Looking at China from the point of view of elite or popular culture therefore produces very different results John Lagerwey has done extensive fieldwork on local society and its festivals This book represents a first attempt to use this new research to integrate top down and bottom up views of Chinese society culture and history It should be of interest to a wide range of China specialists students of religion and popular culture as well as participants in the ongoing interdisciplinary dialogue between historians and anthropologists John Lagerwey is professor of Daoist history at the cole Pratique des Hautes études and of Chinese studies at the Chinese University of Hong Kong He is author of Taoist Ritual in Chinese Society and History and editor of the 30 volume Traditional Hakka Society Series as well as the recently published four volume set Early Chinese Religion

Paradigm Shifts in Early and Modern Chinese Religion John Lagerwey, 2018-10-08 From the fifth century BC to the present and dealing with the Three Teachings Confucianism Daoism and Buddhism as well as popular religion this introduction to the eight volume Early and Modern Chinese Religion explores key ideas and events in four periods of paradigm shift in the intertwined histories of Chinese religion politics and culture It shows how in the Chinese church state elite processes of rationalization interiorization and secularization are at work in every period of major change and how popular religion gradually emerges to a position of dominance by means of a long history of at once resisting adapting to and collaborating with elite driven change Topics covered include ritual scripture philosophy state policy medicine sacred geography gender and the economy It also serves as the basis for an on line Coursera course Emperor Huizong Patricia Buckley Ebrey, 2014-01-06 The first comprehensive English language biography of Emperor Huizong corrects the prevailing view of this ruler as a decadent political failure who lost the throne to invaders Ebrey recasts the artistically gifted emperor as passionate and paradoxical yet genuinely ambitious if too much so in pursuing glory for his flourishing realm Making the Gods Speak Vincent Goossaert, 2023-11-20 For two millennia Chinese society has been producing divine revelations on an unparalleled scale in multifarious genres and formats This book is the first comprehensive attempt at accounting for the processes of such production It builds a typology of the various ritual techniques used to make gods present and allow them to speak or write and it follows the historical development of these types and the revealed teachings they made possible Within the large array of visionary mediumistic and mystical techniques Vincent Goossaert devotes the bulk of his analysis to spirit writing a family of rites that appeared around the eleventh century and gradually came to account for the largest numbers of books and tracts ascribed to the gods In doing so he shows that the practice of spirit writing must be placed within the framework of techniques used by ritual specialists to control human communications with gods and spirits for healing divining and self divinization among other purposes Making the Gods Speak thus offers a ritual centered framework to study revelation in Chinese cultural history and comparatively with the revelatory practices of other religious traditions

Entangled Hagiographies of the Religious Other Alexandra Cuffel, Nikolas Jaspert, 2019-04-23 Tales of saints whether told by their adherents or detractors frequently featured the holy person's dealings with members of other religions or cultures or the stories themselves were appropriated by different religious or cultural groups As such narratives moved from one social cultural religious or chronological milieu to another the representation and meaning of the given holy person and the manner of his/her dealing with the religious other also often changed As basic storylines remained recognizable the transformations of specific details often provide important clues about shifts in attitudes over time and between communities This volume provides a varied array of case studies of this process ranging from early China to various Christian Muslim and Jewish cultural contexts in the late antique medieval and early modern periods
