Christians have Crisis? UNDERSTANDING CRISIS AND THE AFTERMATH Judith Isaacs-Herrig, M.Ed QIDP,2018-07-29 Of course Christians have crisis As human beings we are surrounded by temptation we all make mistakes and we all suffer with trials in our lives Unfortunately there are well intended Christians who attempt to minister to those suffering or in crisis without realizing how their words of wisdom could actually be counterproductive and potentially harmful This book is a resource for ministry leaders parents teachers and caregivers regarding mental illness chronic pain abortion abuse and addictions It also covers marital and family issues There are facts included throughout the book to reveal the prevalence of each topic and listed resources to increase knowledge in those areas Scripture is included throughout the book to provide solid Christian counsel through each topic If someone came up to you today to reveal they are considering suicide or that they are addicted to porn or prescribed drugs would you know what to say to them What if someone wants to talk to you because they believe their spouse is having an affair or a mother believes her child is being molested or bullied or their adult child is being abused by their spouse Would you know how to advise them Are your words subjective Are they productive Are your words factual and scriptural As a church we need to teach that Christ is a loving and forgiving God We need to have compassion for the misunderstood As a church we need to be knowledgeable of current fads common problems in societies and families so we know how to respond to crises appropriately As a church we need to encourage a safe environment for those in need We need to minister to people with open minds and open hearts And we need to know when it is time to reach out for professional help I am the Reluctant Messiah and So Are YOU Robyn Accetturo,2025-08-21 It took the author Rev Robyn Accetturo L C S W a life s journey that sometimes reads like a fantasy to own and stand in her Spiritual Power We all have the capabilities of doing the same She calls it a journey to uncovering and revealing our wholeness our Spirit operating in human form She shows us through the courageous example of her own life how to become a vessel for the Christ Consciousness to fill us so we too can do what Jesus did I am the Reluctant Messiah and So Are YOU is written with such raw vulnerability and authenticity it compels us to reframe how we view ourselves Our human body is a vehicle of transport for our Spirit similar to how a 4 stroke cycle combustion engine operates a car We have five spiritual senses that coincide with our five human ones Once we name them we can claim them Let Rev Robyn be our guide to usher in a New Humanity one Heart and Spirit at a time Join us to bring Heaven on Earth Migrants Who Care Fumilayo Showers,2023-09-15 As the U S population ages and as health care needs become more complex demand for paid care workers in home and institutional settings has increased This book draws attention to the reserve of immigrant labor that is called on to meet this need Migrants Who Care tells the little known story of a group of English speaking West African immigrants who have become central to the U S health and long term care systems With high human capital and middle class pre migration backgrounds these immigrants hailing from countries as diverse as Cameroon Sierra Leone Ghana Nigeria and Liberia encounter blocked opportunities in the U S labor market They then work in the United States as home health aides certified nursing assistants qualified disability support professionals and licensed practical and registered nurses This book reveals the global political social and economic factors that have facilitated the entry of West African women and men into the health care labor force home and institutional care for older adults and individuals with physical and intellectual disabilities and skilled nursing It highlights these immigrants role as labor brokers who tap into their local ethnic and immigrant communities to channel co ethnics to meet this labor demand It illustrates how West African care workers understand their work across various occupational settings and segments in the health care industry This book reveals the transformative processes migrants undergo as they become produced repackaged and deployed as health care workers after migration Ultimately this book tells the very real and human story of an immigrant group surmounting tremendous obstacles to carve out a labor market niche in health care providing some of the most essential and intimate aspects of care labor to the most vulnerable members of society Dictionary Catalog of the Research Libraries of the New York Public Library, 1911-1971 New York Public Library.
