Riello 40 G 20 Manual:

A Revolution in Colour Giorgio Riello, Maria Hayward, Ulinka Rublack, 2024-09-19 This major volume aims to re colour the European world of dress c 1300 1800 New dyes created one of the most important visual experiences of the period yet their story has been side lined by a focus on visual experiences shaped by the high arts Meanwhile theatrical productions and period films still abound with broad assumptions about the growing dominance of black clothing for elites during the period while ordinary people are imagined having worn coarse greys and bleached garments This volume presents clear evidence that even the clothing of the middle classes could be much more expensive than paintings and that coloured clothing and accessories were ubiquitous across society Contributors shed new light on the economic environmental and cultural dimensions of colour in dress The range of dyes expanded considerably in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries drawing on Asian and Mediterranean knowledge new collections of recipes and the greater diversity of plants available through New World trade Working creatively with organic plant animal and mineral materials to make colours involved considerable knowledge pleasure and skill The creation of colour through dyes thus reveals a whole range of global agricultural and craft technologies that can inspire future material worlds and transforms our understanding of Europe s cultural heritage

Perspective on Design Daniel Raposo, João Neves, José Silva, 2019-11-23 This book presents the outcomes of recent endeavors that are expected to foster significant advances in the areas of communication design fashion design interior design and product design as well as overlapping areas The fourteen chapters highlight carefully selected contributions presented during the 6th EIMAD conference held on February 22 23 2018 at the School of Applied Arts Campus da Talagueira in Castelo Branco Portugal They report on outstanding advances that offer new theoretical perspectives and practical research directions in design and which are aimed at fostering communication in a global digital world while also addressing key individual and societal needs

Road and Track, 1987

Dressing Global Bodies Beverly Lemire, Giorgio Riello, 2019-11-19 Dressing Global Bodies addresses the complex politics of dress and fashion from a global perspective spanning four centuries tying the early global to more contemporary times to reveal clothing practice as a key cultural phenomenon and mechanism of defining one s identity This collection of essays explores how garments reflect the hierarchies of value collective and personal inclinations religious norms and conversions Apparel is now recognized for its seminal role in global colonial and post colonial engagements and for its role in personal and collective expression Patterns of exchange and commerce are discussed by contributing authors to analyse powerful and diverse colonial and postcolonial practices This volume rejects assumptions surrounding a purportedly all powerful Western metropolitan fashion system and instead aims to emphasize how diverse populations seized agency through the fashioning of dress Dressing Global Bodies contributes to a growing scholarship considering gender and race place and politics through the close critical analysis of dress and fashion it is an indispensable volume for students of history and especially those interested in fashion textiles
