The Poetics of Poesis

Felicia Bonaparte, 2016-01-11 Examining novels written in nineteenth century England and throughout most of the West as well as philosophical essays on the conception of fictional form Felicia Bonaparte sees the novel in this period not as the continuation of eighteenth century realism as has commonly been assumed but as a genre unto itself Determined to address the crises in religion and philosophy that had shattered the foundations by which the past had been sustained novelists of the nineteenth century felt they had no real alternative but to make the world anew Finding in the new ideas of the early German Romantics a theory precisely designed for the remaking of the world these novelists accepted Friedrich Schlegel s challenge to create a form that would render such a remaking possible They spoke of their theory as poesis etymologically a making to distinguish it from the mimesis associated with realism Its purpose however was not only to embody as George Eliot put it in Middlemarch the idealistic in the real giving as faithful an account of the real as observation can yield but also to embody in that conception of the real a discussion of ideas that are its symbolic signification as Edward Bulwer Lytton described it in one of his essays It was to carry this double meaning that the nineteenth century novelist created Bonaparte concludes the language of mythical symbolism that came to be the norm for this form and she argues that it is in this doubled language that

Mitchell, 2000-11-30 Sir Gawain's Little Green Book retells two of the classic stories about one of King Arthur's foremost knights The Green Knight takes its title and its story from the Middle English poem Sir Gawain and the Green Knight In The Green Knight Sir Gawain reminisces looking back on his life from his point of view as an aging legend He recalls his youth when he was much greener and his first adventure the only one that has remained his through all the centuries One Christmas the knights of King Arthur are waiting for the Yuletide banquet Arthur as is his custom will not start a meal on a great feast until some wonder has been seen or miracle performed This Christmas he is rewarded by a huge green giant riding into his castle on his green horse carrying a huge green axe The giant proposes a simple game an exchange of blows One knight gets to try to chop the giant's head off with the green axe In a year and a day that knight will seek out the Green Knight offering his neck for a return stroke No one is eager to take up this challenge and just when it looks like it will fall to Arthur Gawain and the king's nephew volunteers He takes the green axe and neatly and completely slices off the head of the green giant The intruder walks over to where his head had fallen picks it up and it announces that he is the knight of the Green Chapel and that is where Sir Gawain should seek him in a year and day to receive his return blow He then remounts his horse and carrying his head rides away For the rest of the year Gawain dallies He wants to ride out in search of the Green Knight but Arthur keeps him close to court out of love Spring become fall and Gawain finally sets out In the course of his journey he meets several different types of people A peasant wife a knight guarding a ford and a wild man of the woods None of them have ever heard of a place called the Green Chapel Finally just before Christmas he finds himself before a great castle He is welcomed and made much of as a famous knight from a great court He is told that the Green Chapel is very nearby His host proposes a game Gawain should rest until New Years Day when he must keep his appointment In that time he would exchange whatever he won around the castle with the lord of the castle for whatever he got in the course of a days hunting Each morning for the next three days when Gawain awakes the lady of the castle is in his room She throws herself at him asking for lessons in love Gawain is honorable and does not give in He does accept kisses from her Meanwhile her husband is hunting first deer then a boar then a fox Each evening Gawain gives the host kisses in return for his hunting prizes On the final morning Gawain weakens While he doesnt give in to the ladys demands for love he does accept a gift from her a green belt that she tells him will keep him from being wounded in any way When that nights exchange takes place Gawain doesnt mention this prize Finally Gawain sets out for the Green Chapel It is a cold and gray day The page sent along to guide tries to scare him off but Gawain goes on alone He descends into the valley where the Green Chapel is said to be but doesnt see anything Eventually he hears the sound of a sharpening wheel Then the Green Knight makes himself known vaulting down to the valley floor on the haft of a new axe Gawain true to his word opens his collar and offers his neck to the giant The knight takes his swing but Gawain flinches The giant tries again but it is a feint Finally a third blow comes which nicks Gawains neck causing just a scratch Gawain leaps back ready to fight but the Green Knight just stands laughing at him The Green Knight then reveals himself as the lord of the castle that had harbored Gawain He had been changed into this form by Gawai
