Community Engagement in Christian Higher Education P. Jesse Rine, Sandra Quiñones, 2020-12-29 Originally published as a special issue of Christian Higher Education this volume showcases diverse forms of community engagement work carried out by faith based colleges and universities throughout the US Acknowledging the rise of community engagement as a contemporary expression of a longstanding civic impulse Community Engagement in Christian Higher Education explores how religious mission and identity animate institutional practice across various forms of Catholic and Protestant Higher Education Offering perspectives from faculty members administrators and community partners at nine different US institutions chapters highlight effective initiatives that have been actively implemented in rural urban and suburban contexts to meet local needs and serve the public good With a focus on practical community work the text demonstrates the very concrete ways in which Christian values can inform and foster community engagement This volume will be of interest to scholar practitioners researchers and academics in the fields of higher education sociology of education religious education and practical theology More broadly the text offers important insights for faith leaders and the faculty of faith based institutions exploring issues of community identity and shared purpose Reparations and the Theological Disciplines Michael Barram,Drew G. I. Hart,Gimbiya Kettering,Michael J. Rhodes,2023-10-10 Historically many churches and theologians defended and supported race based slavery and subsequent forms of racial hierarchy and violence The essays in Reparations and the Theological Disciplines argue that it is urgent that the theological disciplines engage the issue of reparations by revisiting Scripture and our theological traditions The time is now for remembrance reckoning and repair

Political Theology Based in Community Marty Tomszak,2023-09-18 In Political Theology Based in Community Dorothy Day The Catholic Worker Movement and Overcoming Otherness Marty Tomszak sutures together the seemingly disparate realms of radical political theology communally oriented pedagogy the Catholic Worker movement and Catholic Social Teaching to carve a new way of doing ethics in our contemporary sphere Through an adoption of weak theology and atheism brought into the fold by John Caputo and Richard Kearney specifically and partnering them with the groundbreaking work of Dorothy Day and Peter Maurin in their outpouring of works of mercy Tomszak highlights the hope present in radical hospitality for our world This hope is addressed to the distinct publics of the academy the Church and wider society as this radical ethic provides distinct answers for a multitude of current crises Reproductive Justice and the Catholic Church Emily Reimer-Barry,2024-06-10 Pregnancy loss is profoundly complex ambiguous and alienating but telling women who have procured abortions that they are murderers and sinners is not the best way forward Magisterial teachings on abortion are too often presented as moral absolutes when in fact moral absolutism distorts the rich wisdom of the Catholic intellectual tradition This book initiates a new conversation about women s experiences of miscarriage stillbirth and abortion arguing that we need not approach these difficult life experiences in a simplistic way Dr Reimer Barry argues that both the pro life and pro choice movements make important and valuable claims yet each approach on its own is flawed Drawing on the framework of reproductive justice together with Catholic social teaching Dr Reimer Barry suggests a new way forward for abortion discourse that takes seriously the full human dignity of women and the intrinsic though not absolute value of prenatal life She argues that instead of thinking of the Church as a moral teacher with leaders in Rome or Washington DC dictating to the consciences of the faithful a better way to address the complexity of difficult pregnancy discernments would be to think of the Church as a community of support in the midst of and after difficult discernments a community that seeks justice together and implements structural reforms while also providing spiritual care to those in need What women deserve is justice Undocumented and in College Terry-Ann Jones,Laura Nichols,2017-09-19 The current daily experiences of undocumented students as they navigate the processes of entering and then thriving in Jesuit colleges are explored alongside an investigation of the knowledge and attitudes among staff and faculty about undocumented students in their midst and the institutional response to their presence Cutting across the fields of U S immigration policy theory and history religion law and education Undocumented and in College delineates the historical and present day contexts of immigration including the role of religious institutions This unique volume based on an extensive two year study 2010 12 of undocumented students at Jesuit colleges in the United States and with contributions from various scholars working within these institutions incorporates survey research and in depth interviews to present the perspectives of students staff and the institutions
