Lisanne Gibson, Joanna Besley

Public Sculpture In Australia:

Public Sculpture in Australia Michael Hedger, 1995 Major sections include war memorials ranging from Boer War and World War I memorials through to contemporary minimalism commemorative sculpture encompassing works relating to historical events royalty statesmen explorers and prominent humanitarians fountains and garden sculpture ranging from 19th Century works through to sculptures in modern parks like those at Expo and Sydney s Darling Harbour corporate sculpture and works in public gallery collections How Local Art Made Australia's National Capital Anni Doyle Wawrzyńczak, 2020-08-31 Canberra s dual status as national capital and local city dramatically affected the rise of a unique contemporary arts scene This complex story informed by rich archival material and interviews details the triumph of local arts practice and community over the insistent cultural nation building of Australia s capital It exposes local arts as a vital force in Canberra s development and uncovers the influence of women in the growth of its visual arts culture A broad illumination of the city wide development of arts and culture from the 1920s to 2001 is combined with the story of Bitumen River Gallery and its successor Canberra Contemporary Art Space from 1978 to 2001 This history traces the growth of the arts from a community led endeavour through a period of responses to social and cultural needs and ultimately to a humanising local practice that transcended national and international boundaries A Companion to Australian Art Christopher Allen, 2021-04-27 A Companion to Australian Art is a thorough introduction to the art produced in Australia from the arrival of the First Fleet in 1788 to the early 21st century Beginning with the colonial art made by Australia s first European settlers this volume presents a collection of clear and accessible essays by established art historians and emerging scholars alike Engaging clearly written chapters provide fresh insights into the principal Australian art movements considered from a variety of chronological regional and thematic perspectives The text seeks to provide a balanced account of historical events to help readers discover the art of Australia on their own terms and draw their own conclusions The book begins by surveying the historiography of Australian art and exploring the history of art museums in Australia The following chapters discuss art forms such as photography sculpture portraiture and landscape painting examining the practice of art in the separate colonies before Federation and in the Commonwealth from the early 20th century to the present day This authoritative volume covers the last 250 years of art in Australia including the Early Colonial High Colonial and Federation periods as well as the successive Modernist styles of the 20th century and considers how traditional Aboriginal art has adapted and changed over the last fifty years The Companion to Australian Art is a valuable resource for both undergraduate and graduate students of the history of Australian artforms from colonization to postmodernism and for general readers with an interest in the nation s colonial art history Australian Art Andrew Sayers, 2001 This comprehensive survey uniquely covers both Aboriginal art and that of European Australians providing a revealing examination of the interaction between the two Painting bark art photography rock art sculpture and the decorative arts are all fully explored to present the rich texture of Australian art traditions Well known artists such as Margaret Preston Rover Thomas and Sidney Nolan are all discussed as are the natural history illustrators Aboriginal draughtsmen and pastellists whose work is only now being brought to light by new research Taking the European colonization of the continent in 1788 as his starting point Sayers highlights important issues concerning colonial art and women artists in this fascinating new story of Australian art

Writing the Australian Beach Elizabeth Ellison, Donna Lee Brien, 2020-03-02 Writing the Australian Beach is the first book in fifteen years to explore creative and cultural representations of this iconic landscape and how writers and scholars have attempted to understand and depict it Although the content chiefly focuses on Australia the beach as both a location and idea resonates deeply with readers around the world This edited collection includes three sections Forms of Beach Writing examines the history of beach writing in Australia and in a number of forms screenwriting social media writing and food writing In turn Multiplicities of Australian Beach Writing examines how forms of writing poetry travel writing horror film and memoir engage with some specific beaches in Australia And finally Reading the Beach as a Text considers how the beach itself functions in cultural narratives how we walk the beach the revealing story of beach soccer and the design and use of ocean baths Given its scope the collection offers a unique resource for scholars of Australian culture and creative writing and for all those interested in Australian beaches
