Pulsation From Wilhelm Reich To Neurodynamic Psychotherapy:

Pulsation Seán Haldane, 2014 New Wings for Daedalus Israel. Regardie, 2018-08 Though Francis Israel Regardie 1907 1985 is best known for his writings on the Western magical mystical system known as the Golden Dawn that is not how he made his living He was a Doctor of Chiropractic under which license he practiced the psychotherapeutic methods of Wilhelm Reich M D 1897 1957 Reichian Therapy was a revolutionary approach to dealing with psychological issues Reich who had once been an associate of Sigmund Freud had developed important extensions to psychological theory and the therapy methods of the day But in a clinical setting he and others were continually faced with the intractability of many patients against the therapeutic methods then in use He came to believe that this armoring was not simply a head issue but was elaborated in actual physical armoring of the musculature In time he developed a novel and highly successful approach to psychotherapy rather than just talk with his patients he manipulated and attacked the muscular armor directly But today we see almost nothing of his methods except in Christopher Hyatt s Radical Undoing and Alexander Lowen s Bioenergetics First written in the 1950s and updated through the 1970s this never before published tour de force provides a masterful description of both Reich s theory and clinical practice It is an indispensable tool for anyone interested in one of the most effective psychotherapeutic methods ever devised Issues in Radical Therapy ,1973
