From Song to Book Sylvia Huot, 2019-05-15 As the visual representation of an essentially oral text Sylvia Huot points out the medieval illuminated manuscript has a theatrical performative quality She perceives the tension between implied oral performance and real visual artifact as a fundamental aspect of thirteenth and fourteenth century poetics In this generously illustrated volume Huot examines manuscript texts both from the performance oriented lyric tradition of chanson courtoise or courtly love lyric and from the self consciously literary tradition of Old French narrative poetry She demonstrates that the evolution of the lyrical romance and dit narrative poems which incorporate thematic and rhetorical elements of the lyric was responsible for a progressive redefinition of lyric poetry as a written medium and the emergence of an explicitly written literary tradition uniting lyric and narrative poetics Huot first investigates the nature of the vernacular book in the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries analyzing organization page layout rubrication and illumination in a series of manuscripts She then describes the relationship between poetics and manuscript format in specific texts including works by widely read medieval authors such as Guillaume de Lorris Jean de Meun and Guillaume de Machaut as well as by lesser known writers including Nicole de Margival and Watriquet de Couvin Huot focuses on the writers characteristic modifications of lyric poetics their use of writing and performance as theme their treatment of the poet as singer or writer and of the lady as implied reader or listener and the ways in which these features of the text were elaborated by scribes and illuminators Her readings reveal how medieval poets and book makers conceived their common project and how they distinguished their respective roles

Pygmalion's Chisel Tracy M. Hallstead, 2013-05-20 Pygmalion's Chisel For Women Who Are Never Good Enough by Tracy M Hallstead examines the enduring critical presence in contemporary Western culture that scrutinizes critiques and sizes women down in their daily lives despite rights gained through the centuries Pygmalion was the ancient mythical sculptor who believed that all women were essentially flawed He therefore endeavored to chisel to perfection a statue of a woman he called Galatea Like the perpetually carved and perfected Galatea women labor under Western culture's a priori assumption that they are flawed yet they are often unable to account for the self criticism and self doubt that result from this premise As Hallstead analyzes the culture's requirements for the perfect woman she traces how cultural forces permeate women's personal lives In calling for solutions she resurfaces the thinking of historical women who responded rather than reacted to the patriarchal culture that devalued them In engaging these women of the past whose struggles were eerily similar to our own Hallstead encourages a responsive feminism that becomes the clear path leading outside Pygmalion's chamber door The Artist and Journal of Home Culture, 1881 EduGorilla NTA CUET UG Book : National Testing Agency (English Edition) - 74 Topic-wise Tests (2200 Solved Questions) Mr. Rohit Manglik, 2022-08-03 Best Selling Book for NTA CUET UG Exam Topic wise Tests for Section IA III with objective type questions as per the latest syllabus given by the National Testing Agency NTA CUET UG Exam Preparation Kit comes with 74 Topic wise Practice Tests with the best quality content Increase your chances of selection by 16X NTA CUET UG Exam Prep Kit comes with well structured and 100% detailed solutions for all the questions Clear exam with good grades using thoroughly Researched Content by experts
