Righteous Transgressions Lihi Ben Shitrit, 2015-12-08 A comparative look at female political activism in today's most influential Israeli and Palestinian religious movements How do women in conservative religious movements expand spaces for political activism in ways that go beyond their movements' strict ideas about male and female roles How and why does this activism happen in some movements but not in others Righteous Transgressions examines these questions by comparatively studying four groups the Jewish settlers in the West Bank the ultra Orthodox Shas the Islamic Movement in Israel and the Palestinian Hamas Lihi Ben Shitrit demonstrates that women's prioritization of a nationalist agenda over a proselytizing one shapes their activist involvement Ben Shitrit shows how women construct frames of exception that temporarily suspend rather than challenge some of the limiting aspects of their movements' gender ideology Viewing women as agents in such movements she analyzes the ways in which activists use nationalism to astutely reframe gender role transgressions from inappropriate to righteous The author engages the literature on women's agency in Muslim and Jewish religious contexts and sheds light on the centrality of women's activism to the promotion of the spiritual social cultural and political agendas of both the Israeli and Palestinian religious right Looking at the four most influential political movements of the Israeli and Palestinian religious right Righteous Transgressions reveals how the bounds of gender expectations can be crossed for the political good

Settling Hebron Tamara Neuman, 2018-05-02 The city of Hebron is important to Jewish Islamic and Christian traditions as home to the Tomb of the Patriarchs the burial site of three biblical couples Abraham and Sarah Isaac and Rebecca and Jacob and Leah Today Hebron is one of the epicenters of the Israel Palestine conflict consisting of two unequal populations a traditional Palestinian majority without citizenship and a fundamentalist Jewish settler minority with full legal rights Contemporary Jewish settler practices and sensibilities legal gray zones and ruling complicities have remade Hebron into a divided Palestinian city surrounded by a landscape of fragmented militarized strongholds In Settling Hebron Tamara Neuman examines how religion functions as ideology in Hebron with a focus on Jewish settler expansion and its close but ambivalent relationship to the Israeli state Neuman presents the first critical ethnography of the Jewish settler populations in Kiryat Arba and the adjacent Jewish Quarter in the Old City of Hebron considered by many Israelis as the most ideological of settlements Through extensive fieldwork interviews with settlers soldiers displaced Palestinian urban residents and farmers as well as archival research Neuman challenges dismissive portraits of settlers as rigid fanatical adherents of an anachronistic worldview At the same time she reveals the extent of disconnection between these settler communities and mainstream Modern Orthodox Judaism both of which interpret written sources on the sacredness of land biblical texts rabbinic commentary and mystical traditions in radically different ways Neuman also traces the violent results of a settler formation Palestinian responses to settler encroachment and the connection between ideological settlement and economic processes Settling Hebron explores the complexity of Hebron's Jewish settler community in its own right through its routine practices and rituals its most extreme instances of fundamentalist revision and violence and its strategic relationships with successive Israeli governments

Messianic Zionism in the Digital Age Rachel Z. Feldman, 2024-03-15 Judaism in the twenty first century has seen the rise of the messianic Third Temple movement as religious activists based in Israel have worked to realize biblical prophecies including the restoration of a Jewish theocracy and the construction of the third and final Temple on Jerusalem's Temple Mount. Through groundbreaking ethnographic research, Messianic Zionism in the Digital Age details how Third Temple visions have gained considerable momentum and political support in Israel and abroad. The role of technology in this movement's globalization has been critical. Feldman skillfully highlights the ways in which the internet and social media have contributed to the movement's growth beyond the streets of Jerusalem into communities of former Christians around the world who now identify as the Children of Noah. Bnei Noah. She charts a path for future research while documenting the intimate effects of political theologies in motion and the birth of a new transnational Judaic faith. Governing the Sacred Yuval Jobani, Nahshon Perez, 2020. Holy sites are often at the center of intense contestation between different groups regarding a wide variety of issues including ownership, access, usage, rights, permissible religious conduct, and many others. They are often the source of intractable, long-standing conflicts and extreme violence. These difficulties are exemplified by the five sites profiled in Governing the Sacred: Devils Tower National Monument, Wyoming, US; Babri Masjid, Ram Janmabhoomi, Uttar Pradesh, India; the Western Wall, Jerusalem; the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, Jerusalem; and the Temple Mount, Haram al-Sharif, Jerusalem. Telling the fascinating stories of these high-profile contested sites, the authors develop and critically explore five different models of governing such sites: non-interference, separation, and division; preference; status quo; and closure. Each model relies on different sets of considerations. Central among them are trade-offs between religious liberty and social order. This novel typology aims to assist democratic governments in their attempt to secure public order and mutual toleration among opposed groups in contested sacred sites. Political Science Research in the Middle East and North Africa Janine A.

Clark, Francesco Cavatorta, 2018. In conducting political science research today, one's methodology is of paramount concern. Yet despite the obvious chasm between theory and practice that all scholars experience in the field, there are no specific guidebooks on meeting the methodological and ethical challenges that fieldwork presents. Political Science Research in the Middle East and North Africa helps fill this vacuum, focusing specifically on doing research in one of the most important regions in contemporary world politics. Janine A. Clark and Francesco Cavatorta have gathered together a large and diverse group of researchers who study the region and focus on methodological lessons learned from their first-hand experiences of employing a variety of research methods while conducting fieldwork. The contributors also look at the challenges of conducting field research in a variety of contexts, such as in areas of violence, and using research methods such as interviewing and ethnography. This volume will therefore be an invaluable companion book to more standard methods books and a useful tool not just for Middle East scholars but for all researchers conducting research in complex settings. The

Gates of Gaza: Critical Voices from Israel on October 7 and the War with Hamas Lihi Ben Shitrit, 2024-05-06

Following the horrific attack on October 7, support for a devastating military retaliation and resolution has taken center stage. Nevertheless, within Israel, numerous critical voices cast doubt on the sustainability of such approaches. They champion the principles of morality legality and common sense as the true keys to a lasting solution This book focuses on these voices which are critical of Israeli government policies They are deeply grieving and affected by the October 7 attack while also able to hold both Palestinian and Israeli pain and aspirations not as mutually exclusive but as an impetus for creating a better and more equitable future for all who inhabit the land It chronicles the reactions of intellectuals and scholars to unfolding events All the pieces in this volume were written within a few days to a few months of October 7 and comprise an archive of a particular discourse taking shape in Israel at this historical juncture The book is dedicated to the memory of Vivian Silver who devoted her life to waging peace through valiant activism and was murdered in her home on October 7 The editor's royalties will go to support an annual lecture in her memory on the themes of peace and democracy Read the interview with Lihi Ben Shitrit on De Gruyter Conversations and learn more about the book and the editor With contributions by Shaul Arieli Eva Illouz Idan Landau Yaniv Ronen Yofi Tirosh Assaf David Ameer Fakhoury Ghadir Hani Eran Tzidkiyahu Orit Kamir Orly Noy Noam Shuster Eliassi Jessica Ausinheiler Meirav Jones Tal Correm Anwar Mhajne David Kretzmer Omer Bartov Rawia Aburabia Hannah Safran Tanya Zion Waldoks Galit Cohen Kedem Avi Shilon Hagar Kotef Merav Amir Ali Al Awar and Nicholas Kristof

Mukherjee, 2025-07-17 Understanding the Roots of Intractability in Hindu Muslim Conflicts in India examines why some political conflicts especially those involving religion prove difficult to resolve utilizing the case study of religious conflicts between the Hindus and the Muslims in India Traditional conflict resolution techniques such as negotiation and mediation often fail to manage or resolve such conflicts and the existing literature often overlooks the nuances within religious conflicts This book deepens understanding of the roots of intractable conflicts analyzing five decades of conflicts between Hinduism and Islam in India paving the way for more successful peacebuilding and conflict management The author disaggregates religious conflicts into four types Conflicts over Sacred Sites Dietary Restrictions Religious Festivities and Other Using the Varshney Wilkinson Dataset on Hindu Muslim Violence in India 1950 1995 and Mitra and Ray's 2014 extension of the same dataset 1996 2000 this book argues that compared to the latter three types of conflicts and nonreligious conflicts any conflict involving sacred sites results in greater intensity and duration and hence will be the most intractable It further demonstrates the varied effects of each conflict type on conflict intractability This book will appeal to scholars and students of political science religious studies and conflict and security studies
