Road Woman Life Times Benno:

Lethal City A. W. Gray, 2014-12-15 In this suspenseful thriller set in Dallas A W Gray takes us behind the police lines of a homicide investigation and into the private passions that fuel an urban nightmare A stolen BMW is recovered with a stash of cocaine lurid photos and a charred dismembered body Dallas Metro detective Ham Benno soon connects the victim to a secret circle of family depravity and sexual indiscretion a mother and daughter who blur the lines between predator and prey Are the suspects innocent targets Guilty avengers Nothing has ever been proven and a stone cold killer is about to strike again

The Life and Adventures of Trobadora Beatrice As Chronicled by Her Minstrel Laura Irmtraud Morgner, 2000-01-01 Beatrice awakens after an eight hundred year sleep and travels throughout East Germany with the help of socialist trolley driver Laura Salman

Life Beyond the Holocaust Mira Ryczke Kimmelman, 2022-08-31 For the rare Jews of Poland who managed to survive the Holocaust the very idea of a return to what had been one's homeland might seem both physically and psychologically impossible perhaps even absurd Yet it is precisely this paradoxical journey that Mira Kimmelman undertakes with great dignity and generosity In words that are both direct and intimate she exposes the ambivalence of what it means to learn to live again after Auschwitz to experience love raise a family and assume a steadfast place in the Jewish community of a new land At the same time she acknowledges the abyss of losses that can never be retrieved Perhaps even more importantly Mira reveals how the pain of a return is transformed into a new adventure of discovery and reconciliation to be shared with her sons their families and her readers for generations to come

Karen D Levy Professor of French Studies University of Tennessee This book is written with intelligence sensitivity and eloquence As a post Holocaust memoir it is an excellent volume inasmuch as it brings out the scope of the Holocaust its impact on future generations and how it affects our understanding of past generations The author explores and elucidates the problems of liberation from death and the return to life that forever confront Holocaust survivors

David Patterson Bornblum Chair in Judaic Studies University of Memphis

Life beyond the Holocaust brings to mind in its power to document painful memories Primo Levi's The Reawakening Ms Kimmelman's memoir is above all a beautiful love story of herself and her husband Max She writes in a vernacular style that evokes her experiences with specific details Her book is alive and celebrates in good prose human values triumphing over radical evil

Hugh Nissenson

Echoes From The Holocaust Mira Ryczke Kimmelman, 2022-08-31 During the most difficult times of World War II Mira Kimmelman writes I wondered whether the world really knew what was happening to us I lived in total isolation not knowing what was taking place outside the ghetto gates outside the barbed wires of concentration camps After the war would anyone ever believe my experiences Kimmelman had no way of preserving her experiences on paper while they happened but she trained herself to remember And now as a survivor of the Holocaust she has preserved her recollections for posterity in this powerful and moving book one woman's personal perspective on a terrible moment in human history The daughter of a Jewish seed exporter the author was born Mira Ryczke in 1923 in a suburb of the Baltic seaport of Danzig now Gdansk Poland Her childhood was happy and she learned to cherish her faith and heritage Through the 1930s Mira s family remained in the Danzig area despite a changing political climate that was compelling many friends and neighbors to leave With the Polish capitulation to Germany in the autumn of 1939 however Mira and her family were forced from their home In calm straightforward prose which makes her story all the more harrowing Kimmelman recalls the horrors that befell her and those she loved Sent to Auschwitz in 1944 she escaped the gas chambers by being selected for slave labor Finally as the tide of war turned against Germany Mira was among those transported to Bergen Belsen where tens of thousands were dying from starvation disease and exposure In April 1945 British troops liberated the camp and Mira was eventually reunited with her father Most of the other members of her family had perished In the closing chapters Kimmelman describes her marriage her subsequent life in the United States and her visits to Israel and to the places in Europe where the events of her youth transpired Even when confronted with the worst in humankind she observes she never lost hope or succumbed to despair She concludes with an eloquent reminder If future generations fail to protect the truth it vanishes Only by remembering the bitter lesson of Hitler s legacy can we hope it will never be repeated Teach it tell it read it The Author Mira Ryczke Kimmelman 1923 2019 was a resident of Oak Ridge Tennessee and lectured widely in schools about her experiences during the Holocaust She is also the author of Life beyond the Holocaust Memories and Realities

The Book of Speculation Erika Swyler, 2015-06-23 For fans of The Night Circus comes a sweeping and captivating debut novel about a young librarian who discovers that his family labours under a terrible curse Simon Watson lives alone on the Long Island Sound On a day in late June Simon receives a mysterious book connected to his family The book tells the story of two doomed lovers two hundred years ago He is fascinated yet as he reads Simon becomes increasingly unnerved Why do so many women in his family drown on 24th July And could his beloved sister risk the same terrible fate As 24th July draws ever closer Simon must unlock the mysteries of the book and decode his family history before it s too late

The Mayor of Polk Street Jim Fusilli, 2022-05-31 Two men in 1940s New Jersey are caught up in organized crime and international intrigue in this novel by the Edgar nominee and author of Narrows Gate After a bloody showdown with the mob grocer Sal Benno is being left in peace at least for now But he carries a gun and looks over his shoulder as he goes about his business Sal s lifelong friend Leo is also still in the gritty waterfront town of Narrows Gate for the time being Unlike Sal he has a woman in his life and a promising future at CBS across the river though the Red Scare hangs over the network and threatens his career Meanwhile in Sicily an exiled Mafia boss works to protect his weakened empire from rivals and opportunists darting around the world as the CIA tries to keep a tail on him With chaos ruling in the wake of a crackdown on organized crime the effects are felt from Havana to Hollywood Las Vegas to Greece and in the lives of Sal Leo and those they love In this novel that takes readers into back alleys and halls of power the two must struggle to hold their friendship and their community together even as they are driven to desperation Praise for Narrows Gate Must be ranked among the half dozen most memorable novels about the Mob Mystery Scene A uniquely American tale of ambition and failure of people who underplay their hands and those who overstep their bounds Dazzling David Liss Edgar Award winning novelist Equal parts Ellroy Puzo and Scorsese George Pelecanos writer and producer of The Wire and author of The Night Gardener As tender as it is tough A compelling gritty and brilliant voice Lisa Scottoline New York Times bestselling author Women in the Silent Cinema Annette Förster, 2025-10-01 This magisterial book offers comprehensive accounts of the professional itineraries of three women in the silent film in the Netherlands France and North America Annette Förster presents a careful assessment of the long career of Dutch stage and film actress Adrienne Solser an exploration of the stage and screen careers of French actress and filmmaker Musidora and Canadian born actress and filmmaker Nell Shipman an analysis of the interaction between the popular stage and the silent cinema from the perspective of women at work in both realms fresh insights into Dutch stage and screen comedy the French revue and the American Northwest drama of the 1910s and much more all grounded in a wealth of archival research Postcards to Hitler Bruce Neuburger, 2024-04-09 An intimate history of the Holocaust drawn from the final days of a Jewish family in Munich Postcards to Hitler tells the story of a Jewish family in Munich living as close neighbors to the demagogue who becomes the Nazi Führer Adolf Hitler In a story passionately told by one of their descendants the narrative begins as Benno Neuburger a modest German land investor from Munich and Anna Einstein daughter of a cattle dealer meet at a seder in Laupheim and soon marry The year is 1907 a relatively prosperous optimistic time for German Jews and there is little hint that this good fortune might soon unravel Of all the Jews in Europe Germans like the Neuburgers feel most secure When on a warm July day in 1914 an assassination strikes an obscure Balkan corner of the continent the news passes through Munich's beer gardens like a cold wind Far from a fleeting chill what follows is the time of prolonged bloodshed known as World War I followed by a period of German humiliation resurgent revolution and a brief left led democratic interlude in Munich What might have been a site of socialist experimentation instead becomes the epicenter of German fascism and as Benno and Anna and their extended families cling with vain hope to a peaceful resolution their beloved haven degenerates into a state of racialized madness A bloody pogrom is chased by a second world war followed by evictions resettlements and far worse sounding an inescapable knell despite desperate and defiant acts of resistance Postcards to Hitler is a deeply researched history drawn from personal interviews and archival documents including Benno's and Anna's final letters written amid a slow moving parade of horror until the frail boundaries between themselves and the Holocaust ultimately vanish The Life of the Blessed Virgin Mary abbé Orsini (Mathieu), 1861 Frank Leslie's Pleasant Hours , 1884
