Seven Summers A Naturalist Homesteads In The Modern West:

Out of the Woods Julia Corbett, 2018-09-01 2018 Reading the West Book Awards Nonfiction Winner Have you ever wondered about society's desire to cultivate the perfect lawn why we view some animals as good and some as bad or even thought about the bits of nature inside everyday items toothbrushes cell phones and coffee mugs In this fresh and introspective collection of essays Julia Corbett examines nature in our lives with all of its ironies and contradictions by seamlessly integrating personal narratives with morsels of highly digestible science and research Each story delves into an overlooked aspect of our relationship with nature insects garbage backyards noise open doors animals and language and how we cover our tracks With a keen sense of irony and humor and an awareness of the miraculous in the mundane Julia recognizes the contradictions of contemporary life She confronts the owner of a high end market who insists on keeping his doors open in all temperatures Takes us on a trip to a new mall with a replica of a trout stream that once flowed nearby The phrase out of the woods guides us through layers of meaning to a contemplation of grief remembrance and resilience Out of the Woods leads to surprising insights into the products practices and phrases we take for granted in our everyday encounters with nature and encourages us all to consider how we might re value or reimagine our relationships with nature in our everyday lives

Routledge Handbook of Ecocriticism and Environmental Communication Scott

Slovic, Swarnalatha Rangarajan, Vidya Sarveswaran, 2019-02-01 Ecocriticism and environmental communication studies have for many years co existed as parallel disciplines occasionally crossing paths but typically operating in separate academic spheres These fields are now rapidly converging and this handbook aims to reinforce the common concerns and methodologies of the sibling disciplines The Routledge Handbook of Ecocriticism and Environmental Communication charts the history of the relationship between ecocriticism and environmental communication studies while also highlighting key new paradigms in information studies diverse examples of practical applications of environmental communication and textual analysis and the patterns and challenges of environmental communication in non Western societies Contributors to this book include literary film and religious studies scholars communication studies specialists environmental historians practicing journalists art critics linguists ethnographers sociologists literary theorists and others but all focus their discussions on key issues in textual representations of human nature relationships and on the challenges and possibilities of environmental communication The handbook is designed to map existing trends in both ecocriticism and environmental communication and to predict future directions This handbook will be an essential reference for teachers students and practitioners of environmental literature film journalism communication and rhetoric and well as the broader meta discipline of environmental humanities

Water Lore Camille Roulière, Claudia Egerer, 2022-05-19 Located within the field of environmental humanities this volume engages with one of the most pressing contemporary environmental challenges of our time how can we shift our understanding and realign what water means to us Water is increasingly at the centre of scientific and public debates about climate change In these debates rising sea levels compete against desertification hurricanes and floods follow periods of prolonged drought As we continue to pollute canalise and desalinate waters the ambiguous nature of our relationship with these entities becomes visible From the paradisiac and pristine scenery of holiday postcards through to the devastated landscapes of post tsunami news reports images of waters surround us And while we continue to damage what most sustains us collective precarity grows Breaking down disciplinary boundaries with contributions from scholars in the visual arts history earth systems anthropology architecture literature and creative writing archaeology and music this edited collection creates space for less prominent perspectives with many authors coming from female Indigenous and LGBTQIA contexts Combining established and emerging voices and practice led research and critical scholarship the book explores water across its scientific symbolic material imaginary practical and aesthetic dimensions It examines and interrogates our cultural construction and representation of water and through original research and theory suggests ways in which we can reframe the dialogue to create a better relationship with water sources in diverse contexts and geographies This expansive book brings together key emerging scholarship on water persona and agency and would be an ideal supplementary text for discussions on the blue humanities climate change environmental anthropology and environmental history

Seven Summers Julia B. Corbett, 2013 The story of a naturalist turned professor who flees city life each summer with her pets and power tools to pursue her lifelong dream building a cabin in the Wyoming woods

Communicating the Climate Crisis Julia B. Corbett, 2021-02-22 Communicating the Climate Crisis puts communication at the center of the change we need providing concrete strategies that help break the inertia that blocks social and cultural transformation Reimagining earth not just as the ground we walk upon but as the atmosphere we breathe Eairth this book examines our consumption based identities in fossil fuel culture and the necessity of structural change to address the climate crisis Strategies for overcoming obstacles start with facing the emotional challenges and mental health tolls of the crisis that lead to climate silence Breaking that silence through personal climate conversations elevates the importance of the problem finds common ground and eases climate anxiety Climate justice and faith based worldviews help articulate our moral responsibility to take drastic action to protect all humans and the living world This book tells a new story of hope through action not as isolated guilty consumers but as social actors who engage hearts hands and minds to envision and create a desired future
