Applied Multilevel Analysis Jos W. R. Twisk, 2010-03-26 This is a practical introduction to multilevel analysis suitable for all those doing research Most books on multilevel analysis are written by statisticians those books are difficult for non mathematical researchers In contrast this volume provides an accessible account on the practical application of multilevel analysis in research Many worked examples with computer output are given to illustrate and explain this subject Datasets of the examples are available on the internet so the reader can reanalyze the data This approach will help bridge the conceptual and communication gap that exists between researchers and statisticians Opposing

Australia's First Assisted Immigrants, 1832-42 Melanie Burkett, 2021-10-26 This book unravels the paradoxical denigration of the first significant group of free non convict working class emigrants to the Australian colony of New South Wales in the 1830s Though their labour was sorely needed the colonial elite rejected the new arrivals on the grounds that they were lazy and immoral These criticisms stemmed from political economic and cultural motivations that ultimately sought to protect legitimise and cement the elite's financial and social hegemony The author seeks to explore the ulterior motives behind the public denouncements of immigrants by exposing the conflicting and opportunistic rationales used Brought to Australia from Britain and Ireland through the experiment of government assisted migration these immigrants are often remembered as brave pioneers today but this book exposes the deep antagonistic attitudes toward immigration that remain entrenched in Australian society Uncovering early forms of class antagonism in Australia this book presents useful insights for those researching Australian history and migration studies as well as scholars of colonial history by providing a model for re evaluating and confronting a long standing pattern in most settler societies hostility toward immigrants Globalising

Australian Capitalism Robert Catley, 1996-10-07 Tells the story of Australia's integration into the international economy It traces the Australian economy from Federation to its downturn the 1970s and assesses the current state of play Topics include the rise of economic rationalism demographic and social repercussions of globalisation and the emerging power of the Asia Pacific region Men, Women, and Money David R. Green, Alastair Owens, Josephine Maltby, Janette Rutterford, 2011-04-28 The late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries witnessed significant developments in the structure organization and expansion of financial markets and opportunities for investment in Britain and its empire But very little is known about how men and women engaged with these markets and with new opportunities for money making In what ways did the composition of personal fortunes alter in response to these developments How did individuals make use of new financial opportunities to further their own priorities and ensure their families well being What choices of securities did they make and how did these reflect their attitudes to investment risk What were the implications of a rapidly growing investor population for corporate governance and the regulation of markets How significant is gender in understanding new patterns of wealth holding and investment This interdisciplinary book brings together a range of leading international scholars to answer these questions and to develop important new research agendas Foremost among these is a concern for gender with several of the chapters exploring the growing importance of women within investment markets These findings open up dialogues between economic and financial historians with social gender and feminist historians and add a significant new dimension to existing research on women s economic agency The volume also breaks fresh ground by analysing aspects of wealth holding and finance in British colonial settings Canada and Australia Understanding the extent to which global financial processes shaped the economic lives of those on the periphery as well as at the heart of empire will offer new insights into the social and geographical diffusion of financial markets Queensland Lords Janet Spillman,2015-09-10 Edward and Eliza Lord came to Moreton Bay in 1844 arriving as the remote convict outpost was opened up for free settlement Members of Lancashire merchant families they had invested their inheritances in NSW lands and a Sydney merchant firm just before the drought and crash of 1841 They moved north to rebuild their fortunes settling at Kangaroo Point before moving to the Darling Downs to start new commercial interests Although financial success continued to elude them the Lord family contributed to the settlement of colonial Queensland Edward and Eliza s great great grand daughter Janet Spillman explores the way Queensland moulded the Lord family s lives and the way family members contributed to the colony s development The Oxford Handbook of Land Politics Saturnino M. Borrás,Jennifer C. Franco,Researcher Jennifer C Franco,2025 Access to land in all its multiple meanings is necessarily diverse complex and contentious and facilitating and maintaining such access constitutes a mosaic of social relations and institutional instruments rather than the minimalist and simplistic reduction of land to land property that in turn tends to be interpreted always as individual private property The Oxford Handbook of Land Politics offers heterodox analytical tools to help the reader make sense of the complexity of the politics of land Taste, Trade and Technology Richard Perren,2017-09-29 Focusing on the interactions of producers sellers and consumers of meat across the world Richard Perren elucidates aspects of the evolution of the international economy and the part played by the investment of capital and the enterprise of individuals The study utilises the government reports and papers issued by all countries involved in the meat trade including North and South America Australia New Zealand and Britain Beginning in the nineteenth century allows a comprehensive analysis of how an efficient meat exporting industry was built The industry required investment which was part of the general process of economic development Perren focuses on the nature of the firms involved with the trade the part played in the industry s development by foreign investment and the encouragement given by governments Close attention is also paid to the stimulus of war the impact of animal health and food hygiene regulations on producers and the competing demands of interest groups involved in the food businesses By taking an historical as well as a contemporary approach the book contributes to the current discussion on the effectiveness of animal and meat inspection in identifying farm livestock diseases such as tuberculosis and

BSE This study advances our knowledge of the process of food distribution in the industrialising and post industrial economies and leads to a comprehensive understanding of an important component of the international food chain

Settler Society in the Australian Colonies Angela Woollacott, 2015-03-05 The 1820s to the 1860s were a foundational period in Australian history arguably at least as important as Federation Industrialization was transforming Britain but the southern colonies were pre industrial with economies driven by pastoralism agriculture mining whaling and sealing commerce and the construction trades Convict transportation provided the labour on which the first settlements depended before it was brought to a staggered end first in New South Wales in 1840 and last in Western Australia in 1868 The numbers of free settlers rose dramatically surging from the 1820s and again during the 1850s gold rushes The convict system increasingly included assignment to private masters and mistresses thus offering settlers the inducement of unpaid labourers as well as the availability of land on a scale that both defied and excited the British imagination By the 1830s schemes for new kinds of colonies based on Edward Gibbon Wakefield s systematic colonization gained attention and support The pivotal development of the 1840s 1850s and the political events which form the backbone of this story were the Australian colonies gradual attainment of representative and then responsible government Through political struggle and negotiation in which Australians looked to Canada for their model of political progress settlers slowly became self governing But these political developments were linked to the frontier violence that shaped settlers lives and became accepted as part of respectable manhood With narratives of individual lives Settler Society shows that women s exclusion from political citizenship was vigorously debated and that settlers were well aware of their place in an empire based on racial hierarchies and threatened by revolts Angela Woollacott particularly focuses on settlers dependence in these decades on intertwined categories of unfree labour including poorly compensated Aborigines and indentured Indian and Chinese labourers alongside convicts

Cosmological Readings of Contemporary Australian Literature Kathrin Bartha-Mitchell, 2023-12-22 This book presents an innovative and imaginative reading of contemporary Australian literature in the context of unprecedented ecological crisis The Australian continent has seen significant rapid changes to its cultures and land use from the impact of British colonial rule yet there is a rich history of Indigenous land ethics and cosmological thought By using the age old idea of cosmos the order of the world to foreground ideas of a good order and chaos reciprocity and more than human agency this book interrogates the Anthropocene in Australia focusing on notions of colonisation farming mining bioethics technology environmental justice and sovereignty It offers cosmological readings of a diverse range of authors Indigenous and non Indigenous as a challenge to the Anthropocene s decline narrative As a result it reactivates cosmos as an ethical vision and a transculturally important counter concept to the Anthropocene Kathrin Bartha Mitchell argues that the arts can help us envision radical cosmologies of being in and with the planet and to address the very real social and environmental problems of our era This book will be of particular interest to scholars and students of Ecocriticism Environmental Humanities and postcolonial transcultural and Indigenous studies with a primary focus on Australian New Zealand Oceanic and Pacific area studies
