Sex And The Olympics Condomania:

Sex and the Olympics James Buckley, Jr.,2012-03 Imagine for a moment you re a male 100m sprinter who has just arrived at his very first Olympic Games You only qualified to represent your country by the skin of your teeth but you produced a personal best time when it mattered most and earned the trip of a lifetime Excitement has been your dominant emotion in the weeks leading up to the Games but now nerves are starting to bubble away knowing that very soon you ll be on the world stage against some of the fastest men on the international scene A local newspaper has already predicted you don t stand a chance of progressing through your heat and therefore will be robbed of the opportunity to race the world s fastest man in Usain Bolt Luckily you don t have to race until day three so there s a bit of time to settle into the village and prepare yourself mentally

Sex and the Olympics James Buckley,2012-07-02 Sex the Olympics Condomania explores the importance of the condom and uncovers its controversial journey en route to becoming an Olympic tradition It looks at just how many condoms are distributed and reveals which Games suffered a critical shortage in rubber contraceptives It examines opposition to the provision of condoms at the Olympics and delves into the vital role each condom plays in the fight against the spread of sexually transmitted infections in the Olympic village particularly the potentially lethal HIV AIDS virus This lovingly illustrated book profiles the critical role of the condom at the Olympics for without it the Games and the athletes simply could not perform
