Sexuality and Social Justice in Africa Marc Epprecht, 2013-07-11 The persecution of people in Africa on the basis of their assumed or perceived homosexual orientation has received considerable coverage in the popular media in recent years Gay bashing by political and religious figures in Zimbabwe and Gambia draconian new laws against lesbians and gays and their supporters in Malawi Nigeria and Uganda and the imprisonment and extortion of gay men in Senegal and Cameroon have all rightly sparked international condemnation However much of the analysis has been highly critical of African leadership and culture without considering local nuances historical factors and external influences that are contributing to the problem Such commentary also overlooks grounds for optimism in the struggle for sexual rights and justice in Africa not just for sexual minorities but for the majority population as well Based on pioneering research on the history of homosexualities and engagement with current LGBTI and HIV AIDS activism Marc Epprecht provides a sympathetic overview of the issues at play and a hopeful outlook on the potential of sexual rights for all

Transafrica Chantal Zabus, Chris Dunton, 2025-01-23 Transafrica explores this new lexical culture in cultural materials novels poetry testimonies life stories interviews film visual art in English French Arabic and other selected African languages and the meanings which Africans have transnationally conferred upon queer and transgender from North to South Gender nonconformity and sexual dissidence on the African continent has produced a lexical culture at the crossroads of Western discourse and local African naming practices Transafrica is an unprecedented attempt at identifying the new vocabularies which queer and transgender Africans have used in the first two decades of the 21st century to refer to themselves and narrativize their desire in the face of official narratives by medical doctors and legal and religious authorities that have often been prioritized over a gender variant queer trans non binary individual's lived experience resulting in a systemic disempowerment Using case studies from Morocco Egypt Somalia Nigeria Uganda Madagascar Botswana South Africa and more Transafrica draws conclusions for a culture specific and history specific type of gender diversity outside of Western epistemic borders while confronting Euro American models thereby auguring a turn of the third millennium postqueer set of African open ended identities

Readings in Sexualities from Africa Rachel Spronk, Thomas Hendriks, 2020-02-04 Images and stories about African sexuality abound in today's globalized media Frequently old stereotypes and popular opinion inform these stories and sex in the media is predominately approached as a problem in need of solutions and intervention The authors gathered here refuse an easy characterization of African sexuality and instead seek to understand the various erotic realities sexual practices and gendered changes taking place across the continent They present a nuanced and comprehensive overview of the field of sex and sexuality in Africa to serve as a guide though the quickly expanding literature This collection offers a set of texts that use sexuality as a prism for studying how communities coalesce against the canvas of larger political and economic contexts and how personal lives evolve therein Scholars working in Africa the U S and Europe reflect on issues of representation health and bio politics same sex relationships and identity transactional economies of sex religion and tradition and the importance of pleasure and agency This multidimensional reader provides a comprehensive view of sexuality from an African perspective Women and Sexuality Kelly Campbell, M. L.
