Painting Paradise Vanessa Remington, Sally Goodsir, Roy Strong, 2015 Gardens are where man and nature meet They change by the hour day to day and with the seasons They carry associations about the status approach to life and sometimes even the political affiliations of their creator Gardens can be intended for public enjoyment or private delectation they can be open to the masses or closed to all but a few They may be places of scientific study havens for the solitary thinker spaces for frolicking and games for flirtation and for love Presented with the many faces of the garden artists in Western Europe have looked at the garden in different ways extracting and emphasising those facets of the garden unique to their culture and their time At the same time individual elements drawn from the garden whether architectural or botanic have at certain periods come to the fore and taken their place in the decorative arts of Western Europe This book explores the way in which the garden has inspired artists and craftsmen in Europe between 1500 and 1900 Transnational Belonging and Female Agency in the Arts Basia Sliwinska, Catherine Dormor, 2022-10-20 Transnational Belonging and Female Agency in the Arts interrogates the politics of space expressed via womxn s artistic practices which prioritise solidarity and collaboration across borders imagining attentive geographies of difference It considers belonging as a manifestation of processes of becoming that traverse borders and generate new spaces and forms of difference In doing so the book aims to catalyse mutual social relations founded upon responsibility and response ability to each other The transnational framework activates concerns around belonging at a time of intensified divisions partitioning global narratives unequal trajectories and increasing violence against bodies of the most vulnerable largely founded on Eurocentric paradigms of political economic and cultural superiority The contributors engage in a conversation signalling transversal thinking and artmaking in order to articulate and activate in between spaces This is to welcome co affective models of belonging that question versatile embodiments of subjectivity as both agentic and as interrelational Organised around the triangulation of modes of belonging spatial affective and collective overarched by a transnational lens that acknowledges non hierarchical local and socially relevant genealogies against universalising politics of globalisation these essays consider afresh ways in which female agency disrupts borders and activates concerns around different forms of belonging citizenship and transnationalisms Cover Image credit Keren Anavy Garden of Living Images 2018 general installation view detail Courtesy of the artist and Wave Hill Photographer Stefan Hagen A History of Food in Literature Charlotte Boyce, Joan Fitzpatrick, 2017-05-18 When novels plays and poems refer to food they are often doing much more than we might think Recent critical thinking suggests that depictions of food in literary works can help to explain the complex relationship between the body subjectivity and social structures A History of Food in Literature provides a clear and comprehensive overview of significant episodes of food and its consumption in major canonical literary works from the medieval period to the twenty first century This volume contextualises these works with reference to pertinent historical and cultural materials such as cookery books diaries and guides to good health in order to engage with the critical debate on food and literature and how ideas of food have developed over the centuries Organised chronologically and examining certain key writers from every period including Chaucer Shakespeare Austen and Dickens this book s enlightening critical analysis makes it relevant for anyone interested in the study of food and literature King and Collector Linda Collins,Siobhan Clarke,2021-04-15 Packed with absorbing detail and brilliant insights I was gripped from the first paragraph Alison Weir No English king is as well known to us as Henry VIII famous for his six marriages for dissolving the monasteries and for the ruthless destruction of his foes But Henry was also an ardent patron of the arts whose magnificent tapestries and paintings adorned his lavish court and began the Royal Collection In contrast to later royal collectors Henry was more interested in storytelling than art for its own sake and all his commissions relate to one central tale the glorification of the king and his realm Henry s life can be seen through his collection and the works reveal much about both his kingship and his insecurities King and Collector tells this unique story of art and power peeling back the layers of propaganda to show the true face of the Tudor monarch Painting Paradise Ann Elizabeth Barrott Wicks,1998

Art of the Garden Nicholas Alfrey,Stephen Daniels,Martin Postle,Stephen Bann,Tate Britain (Gallery),2004-09-28 England has long been known as a land of gardeners As such the rich horticultural designs and and painterly experiments have proved to be of great inspiration for artists such as Turner Constable and Freud and this book celebrates their work and theyway in which they invoke the spirit of the garden The Poem and the Garden in Early Modern England Deborah Solomon,2022-12-30 This book draws attention to the pervasive artistic rivalry between Elizabethan poetry and gardens in order to illustrate the benefits of a trans media approach to the literary culture of the period In its blending of textual studies with discussions of specific historical patches of earth The Poem and the Garden demonstrates how the fashions that drove poetic invention were as likely to be influenced by a popular print convention or a particular garden experience as they were by the formal genres of the classical poets By moving beyond a strictly verbal approach in its analysis of creative imitation this volume offers new ways of appreciating the kinds of comparative and competitive methods that shaped early modern poetics Noting shared patterns both conceptual and material in these two areas not only helps explain the persistence of botanical metaphors in sixteenth century books of poetry but also offers a new perspective on the types of contrastive illusions that distinguish the Elizabethan aesthetic With its interdisciplinary approach The Poem and the Garden is of interest to all students and scholars who study early modern poetics book history and garden studies

Зборник радова Византолошког института Vizantološki institut (Srpska akademija nauka i umetnosti),1971 Capability Brown, Royal Gardener Jonathan Finch,Jan Woudstra,2020-10-26 Lancelot Capability Brown was one of the most influential landscape designers of the eighteenth century at a time when Britain was changing radically from an agrarian to an industrial and colonial nation whilst Europe was periodically convulsed by war and revolution The extent and nature of his influence are however fiercely debated Brown worked at hundreds of important sites across England and his name became synonymous with the English Garden style which was copied across Northern Europe and entranced Catherine the Great who remodelled her landscapes in St Petersburg to reflect the new style. He was famed in his time and recognised by the Crown but Brown's style was readily copied over his later life and particularly after his death. Arguably this ubiquity led to the denigration of his achievements and even his character particularly by the agents of the Picturesque. The lack of any personal primary material from Brown forcing scholars to rely on his landscapes contracts and bank accounts has hindered attempts to provide a rounded and credible account of the man and his works. However by exploring his team of associates and his role as Royal Gardener new light can be thrown on the man his landscapes and his landscape legacy. Bringing together a number of perspectives from across Northern Europe. Capability Brown: Royal Gardener explores the lasting international impact of Brown. With Brown's position as Royal Gardener at its heart this book explores for the first time his business methods working methods and European influence. It assesses how crucially Brown's work practices placed him within the world of nurserymen and landscape designers and how his business practices and long term relationships with draughtsmen and designers allowed him to manage a huge number of projects and a substantial financial turnover. This in turn allowed him to work in a way that promoted and advanced his style of landscape. Edited by Professor Jonathan Finch University of York and Dr Jan Woudstra University of Sheffield and with a varied range of engaging contributors drawn internationally from archaeology art history history and landscape architecture. Capability Brown: Royal Gardener weaves together strands from across a broad range of disciplinary interests. It makes an important contribution to the scholarly discussion of Brown's work the work of his collaborators and legacy in the UK and across Northern Europe. Relevant to students and academics at all levels this volume throws new light on Capability Brown and his impact on the business of place making in Northern Europe.
