Paintings In The National Gallery London:

Paintings in the National Gallery, London Augusto Gentili, William L. Barcham, Linda Whiteley, National Gallery (Great Britain), 2000 Celebrating the collection of paintings in the National Gallery in London this survey of art covers Flemish Florentine French Impressionist and other great painters and movements British and Irish Paintings in Public Collections Christopher Wright, Catherine May Gordon, 2006-01-01 This book sets a new standard as a work of reference It covers British and Irish art in public collections from the beginning of the sixteenth century to the end of the nineteenth and it encompasses nearly 9 000 painters and 90 000 paintings in more than 1 700 separate collections The book includes as well pictures that are now lost some as a consequence of the Second World War and others because of de accessioning mostly from 1950 to about 1975 when Victorian art was out of fashion By listing many tens of thousands of previously unpublished works including around 13 000 which do not yet have any form of attribution this book becomes a unique and indispensable work of reference one that will transform the study of British and Irish painting Master European Paintings from the National Gallery of Ireland National Gallery of Ireland, 1992 Treasures of the National Gallery, London National Gallery (Great Britain), Erika Langmuir, 1996 National Galleries Simon Knell, 2016-01-22 Are national galleries different from other kinds of art gallery or museum What value is there for the nation in a collection of international masterpieces How are national galleries involved in the construction national art National Galleries is the first book to undertake a panoramic view of a type of national institution which are sometimes called national museums of fine art that is now found in almost every nation on earth Adopting a richly illustrated globally inclusive comparative view Simon Knell argues that national galleries should not be understood as great galleries but as peculiar sites where art is made to perform in acts of nation building A book that fundamentally rewrites the history of these institutions and encourages the reader to dispense with elitist views of their worth Knell reveals an unseen geography and a rich complexity of performance He considers the ways the national galleries entangle art and nation and the differing trajectories and purposes of international and national art Exploring galleries artists and artworks from around the world National Galleries is an argument about how we think about and study these institutions Privileging the situatedness of each national gallery performance and valuing localism over universalism Knell looks particularly at how national art is constructed and represented He ends with examples that show the mutability of national art and by questioning the necessity of art nationalism America's National Gallery of Art Philip Kopper, National Gallery of Art (U.S.), 2016-10-04 America's National Gallery of Art a 75th anniversary history of the nation's art museum founded by Andrew W Mellon and opened to the public on March 17 1941 Presenting an overview of the Gallery's first fifty years and a thematic look at the transformation the museum has undergone since 1992 the book offers extensive photographic essays that highlight the West Building newly renovated East Building and Sculpture Garden as well as the magnificent art collection and selected special exhibitions The book includes accounts of the founding benefactors and four

directors David Finley John Walker J Carter Brown and now Earl A Powell III and discusses the Gallery's historic 2014 agreement to accept custody of the collections of the Corcoran Gallery of Art Creating Distinctions in Dutch Genre Painting Angela Ho, 2025-10-01 In the mid to late seventeenth century a number of Dutch painters created a new type of refined genre painting that was much admired by elite collectors In this book Angela Ho uses the examples of Gerrit Dou Gerard ter Borch and Frans van Mieris to show how this group of artists made creative use of repetition such as crafting virtuosic self referential compositions around signature motifs or engaging esteemed predecessors in a competitive dialogue through emulation to project a distinctive artistic personality The resulting paintings enabled purchasers and viewers to exercise their connoisseurial eye and claim membership in an exclusive circle of sophisticated enthusiasts making creative repetition a successful strategy for both artists and viewers Angela Ho shows how Dutch painters in the mid to late 17th century used repetition to project a distinctive artistic personality The Oxford Illustrated History of Tudor & Stuart Britain John Stephen Morrill, 1996 Two centuries of dramatic change are covered by this exciting and richly illustrated new work Eighteen leading scholars explore the political social religious and cultural history of the period when monarchs based in south east England strove to extend their authority over the whole of the British Isles The 280 illustrations including 45 colour pictures and 6 maps form an essential part of the book complementing all aspects of the text Lives of Seventy of the Most Eminent Painters, Sculptors and Architects; Giorgio Vasari, 1897 The National Gallery Gabriele Finaldi, 2019 This book offers an introduction to European painting from the 13th to the early 20th century The National Gallery London houses one of the finest collections of Western European art in the world Its extraordinary range includes exceptional paintings from medieval Europe through the early Renaissance and on to Post Impressionism including masterpieces by Leonardo Hans Holbein Titian Velazquez Rembrandt Turner Monet and van Gogh This volume showcases more than 250 of the Gallery's most treasured pictures providing an opportunity to make connections across this uniquely representative collection
