David Brown Morris

Painting Central Park:

Creating Central Park Morrison H. Heckscher, 2008 The year 2008 marks the 150th anniversary of the design of Central Park the first and arguably the most famous of America's urban landscape parks In October 1857 the new park's board of commissioners announced a public design competition and the following April the imaginative yet practicable Greensward plan submitted by Calvert Vaux and Frederick Law Olmsted was selected This book tells the fascinating story of how an extraordinary work of public art emerged from the crucible of New York City politics From William Cullen Bryant's 1844 editorial calling for a pleasure ground of shade and recreation to the completion of construction in 1870 the history of Central Park is an urban epic a tale not only of animosity political intrigue and desire but also of idealism sacrifice and genius

Paintings of New York, 1800-1950 Bruce Weber, 2005 New York has always attracted artists because it is electric with passion endeavor and hustle and because they know they will find others of like mind there The city is a vibrant center of the international art world no wonder then that both resident and sojourning painters have long felt compelled to capture interpret and evoke the place on canvas Bruce Weber faced a daunting amount of works for inclusion in Paintings of New York But he chose well producing a book that combines solid scholarship in history and the arts warmly readable prose and gorgeous color images Artwork included by Piet Mondrian Ernest Lawson Maurice Prendergast William Glackens Georgia O'Keeffe Childe Hassam Raphael Soyer Charles Frederic Ulrich Albertus Del Orient Browere Thomas Moran Joseph Stella Elsie Driggs George Bellows Otto Boetticher Robert Henri George Tooker Francis Guy Thomas Hart Benton and Ben Shahn

Ten Thousand Central Parks David Brown Morris, 2025-10-07 A visionary look at Central Park's creation as an urban success story inspiring bold climate action Climate change is the existential crisis of our time With extreme heatwaves wildfires hurricanes and floods displacing millions many wonder What can I do Ten Thousand Central Parks challenges the despair of inaction using the history of Central Park as an unlikely yet urgent environmental parable Created in the years immediately before during and after the Civil War Central Park is a radical experiment in urban renewal transforming a chaotic and polluted terrain into an 843 acre refuge More than a scenic landmark it was a visionary public project that provided jobs green space and a lasting environmental legacy Designed by Frederick Law Olmsted and Calvert Vaux the park was America's first large scale public works project undertaken at a time of national crisis and built almost entirely by immigrants Its creation offers a powerful lesson Even in turbulent times cities can be reimagined and large scale ecological transformations are possible With over half of the world's population living in cities today predicted soon to reach nearly 70% urban green spaces are more crucial than ever Morris argues that Central Park is not just an artifact of the past but a model for the future Its 18 000 trees sequester nearly a million pounds of carbon dioxide annually proving that ambitious nature based solutions can improve the quality of life while addressing environmental challenges Written with urgency and optimism Ten Thousand Central Parks offers a fresh perspective on the climate crisis rejecting doom in favor of possibility We need projects on the scale of Central Park thousands of them to meet today's environmental challenges This book a boundary crossing work of narrative nonfiction is an invitation to think big act boldly and embrace radical hope Painting the City Red Yomi Braester, 2010-04-07 An examination of the role of cinema and theater in representing urban transformations in China from 1949 to the present American Paintings in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), John Caldwell, Oswaldo Rodriguez Roque, 1980 One of three chronologically arranged catalogues that document the Metropolitan Museum's outstanding collection of American paintings New York City , Geography Through Art Sharon Jeffus, Jamie Aramini, 2008 Art projects from around the world New York Magazine , 1981-12-14 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea The City Record New York (N.Y.), 1885 The Cobra Movement in Postwar Europe Karen Kurczynski, 2020-07-12 This book examines the art of Cobra a network of poets and artists from Copenhagen Brussels and Amsterdam 1948 1951 Although the name stood for the organizers home cities the Cobra artists hailed from countries in Europe Africa and the United States This book investigates how a group of struggling young artists attempted to reinvent the international avant garde after the devastation of the Second World War to create artistic experiments capable of facing the challenges of postwar society It explores how Cobra's experimental often collective art works and publications relate to broader debates in Europe about the use of images to commemorate violent events the possibility of free expression in an art world constrained by Cold War politics the breakdown of primitivism in an era of colonial independence movements and the importance of spontaneity in a society increasingly dominated by the mass media This book will be of interest to scholars in art history 20th century modern art avant garde arts and European history
