Pakistan Military Review Changez Battle Participant 2:

The Military and Denied Development in the Pakistani Punjab Shahrukh Rafi Khan, Aasim Sajjad Akhtar, 2014-11-01 This book focuses on the retrogressive agrarian interventions by the Pakistani military in rural Punjab and explores the social resentment and resistance it triggered potentially undermining the consensus on a security state in Pakistan Set against the overbearing and socially unjust role of the military in Pakistan's economy this book documents a breakdown in the accepted function of the military beyond its constitutionally mandated role of defence Accompanying earlier work on military involvement in industry commerce finance and real estate the authors research contributes to a wider understanding of military intervention revealing its hand in various sectors of the economy and consequently its gains in power and economic autonomy Security, Strategy and Military Change in the 21st Century Jo Inge Bekkevold, Ian Bowers, Michael Raska, 2015-05-22 This edited volume explores and analyses strategic thinking military reform and adaptation in an era of Asian growth European austerity and US rebalancing A significant shift in policy strategy and military affairs is underway in both Asia and Europe with the former gaining increasing prominence in the domain of global security At the same time the world's powers are now faced with an array of diverse challenges The resurgence of great power politics in both Europe and Asia along with the long term threats of terrorism piracy and sustained geopolitical instability has placed great strain on militaries and security institutions operating with constrained budgets and wary public support The volume covers a wide range of case studies including the transformation of China's military in the 21st century the internal and external challenges facing India Russia's military modernization program and the USA's reassessment of its strategic interests In doing so the book provides the reader with the opportunity to conceptualize how strategic thinking military reform operational adaptation and technological integration have interacted with the challenges outlined above With contributions by leading scholars and practitioners from Europe and Asia this book provides a valuable contribution to the understanding of strategic and operational thinking and adjustment across the world This book will be of much interest to students of military and strategic studies security studies defence studies Asian politics Russian politics US foreign policy and IR in general Military Review, 2012 A Subject Index to Current Literature Australian Public Affairs Information Service, The Politics of Peacekeeping in the Post-cold War Era David S. Sorenson, Pia Christina Wood, 2005 This book focuses on explaining peacekeeping commitment decisions at the nation state level filling a gap in the peacekeeping scholarly literature on the political dynamics of peacekeeping decisions Air University Library Index to Military Periodicals, 1992 Shocks and Political Change William R. Thompson, Thomas J. Volgy, 2023-05-16 Political shocks have come to be considered highly salient for explaining major changes to international politics and to the foreign policies of states Such shocks can occur at all levels of analysis domestically dyadically regionally or globally They range from political phenomena such as coups and wars to ecological catastrophes These shocks are sufficiently disruptive to cause foreign policy makers to reconsider their foreign policy orientations and to contemplate major changes to their policies In fact some have argued that it is mostly through political shocks that fundamental policy change occurs in most states No wonder then that political shocks are now increasingly part of the toolbox of considerations used by foreign policy and international relations scholars as they focus on understanding patterns of conflict and cooperation between states Given the salience of political shocks to understand foreign policy change this book brings together a group of both senior and more junior scholars whose previous work has shown substantial promise for moving forward theory and empirical analysis Their combined efforts in this book highlight the value of multiple theoretical and empirical approaches to a clearer understanding of the nature of political shocks and their consequences for foreign policy and international politics

NATO's Post-Cold War Trajectory M. Webber, J. Sperling, M. Smith, 2012-08-20 Two decades since the watershed of the Cold War this book investigates NATO's staying power This book investigates how the Alliance has adapted and managed to attend to new roles and purposes through the lens of International Relations theory The Alliance will continue but will remain subject to ongoing crises and challenges of change

Foreign Policy: Thinking Outside the Box Amitai Etzioni, 2016-07-01 This collection of essays by renowned scholar Amitai Etzioni aims to provoke reconsiderations of basic assumptions of foreign policy by students academics and practitioners With chapters focusing on the Middle East China and the EU as well as articles with a more global focus the book offers thought provoking and insightful perspectives on international foreign policy which challenge existing academic debate in the field It will be of great interest to students scholars and practitioners of foreign policy and international relations

Failed Alliances of the Cold War Panagiotis Dimitrakis, 2011-12-18 The Cold War was a period of intense political rivalry in which diplomacy and international relations in Asia and the Middle East acquired huge global significance In this study Panagiotis Dimitrakis explores British policy towards SEATO South East Asia Treaty Organisation and CENTO Central Treaty Organisation Designed in the 1950s to counter the Soviet Union's attempts to expand its global influence these alliances with Asian and Middle Eastern powers were at the centre of western efforts to maintain regional influence Yet they failed to bring together the differing aims and ambitions of their regional members and were dissolved in 1977 and 1979 respectively This study examines the Cold War policies of the United States Iran and Pakistan as well as the effect of British diplomacy on the war in Vietnam and SEATO planning The formation of CENTO in 1959 an alliance comprising Britain Iran Turkey and Pakistan with the support of the USA was one of the grandest Cold War gestures of solidarity The emergence of new diplomatic records however questions the true commitment of Britain and the United States to come to the defence of their new allies in Asia and the Middle East In fact even in cases of aggression on the part of the Soviet Union the priorities of Britain and the USA were ultimately self serving despite their Cold War rhetoric of ideological unity and common purpose As the 1950s came to a close serious irreconcilable differences in the defence policies of the SEATO and CENTO members began to emerge Citing the latest declassified British and American intelligence assessments diplomats dispatches and military plans Dimitrakis shows how nations across South East Asia fought for material supremacy how Britain and the United States avoided supporting SEATO and CENTO and how détente led to the demise of these alliances Failed Alliances of the Cold War will be a crucial point of reference for scholars of the Cold War and those working in the fields of History Politics and International Relations
