Palestine Azmi Bishara, 2022-03-17 In January 2020 US President Donald Trump announced his deal of the century Supposedly intended to resolve the Palestine Israel conflict it accepted Israeli occupation as a fait accompli Azmi Bishara places this normalisation of occupation in its historical context examining Palestine as an unresolved case of settler colonialism now evolved into an apartheid regime Drawing on extensive research and rich theoretical analysis Bishara examines the overlap between the long discussed Jewish Question and what he calls the Arab Question complicating the issue of Palestinian nationhood He addresses the Palestinian Liberation Movement's failure to achieve self determination and the emergence of a Palestinian Authority under occupation He contends that no solution to problems of nationality or settler colonialism is possible without recognising the historic injustices inflicted on Palestinians since the Nakba This book compellingly argues that Palestine is not simply a dilemma awaiting creative policy solutions but a problem requiring the application of justice Attempts by regional governments to marginalise the Palestinian cause and normalise relations with Israel have emphasised this aspect of the struggle and boosted Palestinian interactions with justice movements internationally Bishara provides a sober perspective on the current political situation in Palestine and a fresh outlook for its future

Palestinian Literature and Film in Postcolonial Feminist Perspective Anna Ball, 2012 Palestinian Literature and Film in Postcolonial Feminist Perspective is the first sustained study of gender consciousness in the Palestinian creative imagination Drawing on concepts from postcolonial feminist theory Ball analyses a range of literary and filmic works by major creative practitioners including Michel Khleifi Liana Badr Annemarie Jacir Elia Suleiman Mona Hatoum and Suheir Hammad and reveals a hitherto unrecognized trajectory in gender consciousness under development in the Palestinian imagination from the start of the twentieth century The book explores how these works resonate with questions of power identity nation resistance and self representation in the Palestinian imagination more broadly and asks how these gender conscious narratives transform our understanding of Palestine's struggle for postcoloniality Working at the cusp of postcolonial feminist and cultural enquiry Ball seeks to open up vital new directions in the interdisciplinary study of Palestine

The Speculative Route Merve Tabur, Sami Ahmad Khan, 2025-08-29 The Speculative Route explores speculative traditions and science fictional modes across South and Southwest Asia and North Africa SSWANA examining their historical connections inter and intra regional entanglements overlaps and differences Conceptualizing science fiction and fantasy SFF as a mode rather than a genre this volume challenges the putative boundaries between literary and genre fiction through critical studies and essays focusing on SFF from Bangladesh Egypt India Iran Pakistan Palestine Sri Lanka and Turkey It demonstrates the ways in which science fictional modes of thinking and imagination function as critical tools for addressing social cultural and political issues beyond genre conventions and expectations Bringing together articles by leading scholars of SFF and think pieces by acclaimed authors of contemporary SF this volume focuses on central themes such as the relationship between aesthetics and politics alterity world building memory trauma colonialism and decolonization ecology gender religion and mythopoetics It engages with the past present and future of speculative traditions in SSWANA and compares the visions that emerge from these seemingly disparate but historically connected entities Part of the Studies in Global Genre Fiction series this volume will be of great interest to academics students and practitioners in the fields of genre studies notably SF SFF comparative literature media and popular culture area studies postcolonial studies and future studies as well as to readers who are interested in exploring SFF works from the Global South Palestinians in Syria Anaheed Al-Hardan, 2016-04-05 One hundred thousand Palestinians fled to Syria after being expelled from Palestine upon the establishment of the state of Israel in 1948 Integrating into Syrian society over time their experience stands in stark contrast to the plight of Palestinian refugees in other Arab countries leading to different ways through which to understand the 1948 Nakba or catastrophe in their popular memory Conducting interviews with first second and third generation members of Syria's Palestinian community Anaheed Al Hardan follows the evolution of the Nakba the central signifier of the Palestinian refugee past and present in Arab intellectual discourses Syria's Palestinian politics and the community's memorialization Al Hardan's sophisticated research sheds light on the enduring relevance of the Nakba among the communities it helped create while challenging the nationalist and patriotic idea that memories of the Nakba are static and universally shared among Palestinians Her study also critically tracks the Nakba's changing meaning in light of Syria's twenty first century civil war

Routledge Handbook of Middle East Politics Larbi Sadiki, 2020-03-31 Drawing on various perspectives and analysis the Handbook problematizes Middle East politics through an interdisciplinary prism seeking a melioristic account of the field Thematically organized the chapters address political social and historical questions by showcasing both theoretical and empirical insights all of which are represented in a style that ease readers into sophisticated induction in the Middle East It positions the didactic at the centre of inquiry Contributions by forty four scholars both veterans and newcomers rethink knowledge frames conceptual categories and fieldwork praxis Substantive themes include secularity and religion gender democracy authoritarianism and new borderline politics of the Middle East Like any field of knowledge the Middle East is constituted by texts authors and readers but also by the cultural spatial and temporal contexts within which diverse intellectual inflections help construct write speak academic meaning knowing and practice By denaturalizing notions of singularity of authorship or scholarship the Handbook plants a dialogic interplay animated by multi vocality multi modality and multi disciplinarity Targeting graduate students and young scholars of political and social sciences the Handbook is significant for understanding how the Middle East is written and re written read and re read epistemology methodology and for how it comes to exist ontology The International Dimension of the Israel-Palestinian Conflict Daniela Huber, 2021-01-01 2021 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title Despite decades of international diplomatic efforts a solution to the Israel Palestinian conflict is still as elusive as ever forcing us to ask the question have global and regional powers rather than helping to solve the conflict actually led to its perpetuation This book explores this question from a post Eurocentric perspective Departing from the literature that sees the United States Europe and Russia as outside diplomatic actors and regional powers such as Egypt Iran Saudi Arabia and Turkey as part of the conflict Daniela Huber instead conceptualizes all of them as actors in the regional international dimension of the conflict which they re produce through their role performances Anchored in grounded theory and critical discourse analysis she examines the scripts that have been performed by these powers at the United Nations and how the authoritative international framing of the conflict has evolved in the UN Security Council and General Assembly identifying periods of continuity and ruptures in these scripts as well as alternatives to them Eastern Cauldron: Islam, Afghanistan, Palestine and Iraq in a Marxist Mirror Gilbert Achcar, 2004 To guide us all through the three star disasters of the Bush years I can think of no better pilot Alexander Cockburn CounterPunch Encountering Palestine Mark Griffiths, Mikko Joronen, 2023-12 This edited volume is situated at the intersection of cultural and political geographies that offers innovative reflections on power colonialism and anti colonialism in contemporary Palestine and Israel Blind Spot Khaled Elgindy, 2019-04-02 A critical examination of the history of US Palestinian relations The United States has invested billions of dollars and countless diplomatic hours in the pursuit of Israeli Palestinian peace and a two state solution Yet American attempts to broker an end to the conflict have repeatedly come up short At the center of these failures lay two critical factors Israeli power and Palestinian politics While both Israelis and Palestinians undoubtedly share much of the blame one also cannot escape the role of the United States as the sole mediator in the process in these repeated failures American peacemaking efforts ultimately ran aground as a result of Washington s unwillingness to confront Israel s ever deepening occupation or to come to grips with the realities of internal Palestinian politics In particular the book looks at the interplay between the U S led peace process and internal Palestinian politics namely how a badly flawed peace process helped to weaken Palestinian leaders and institutions and how an increasingly dysfunctional Palestinian leadership in turn hindered prospects for a diplomatic resolution Thus while the peace process was not necessarily doomed to fail Washington s management of the process with its built in blind spot to Israeli power and Palestinian politics made failure far more likely than a negotiated breakthrough Shaped by the pressures of American domestic politics and the special relationship with Israel Washington s distinctive blind spot to Israeli power and Palestinian politics has deep historical roots dating back to the 1917 Balfour Declaration and the British Mandate The size of the blind spot has varied over the years and from one administration to another but it is always present
