Pan-Africanism and Communism Hakim Adi, 2013 This book examines the interaction between the Communist International Comintern and the global struggle for the liberation of Africa and the African Diaspora during the inter war period In particular it focuses on the history of the International Trade Union Committee of Negro Workers ITUCNW established by the Red International of Labour Unions Profintern in 1928 and its activities in Africa the United States the Caribbean and Europe

Pan-Africanism Hakim Adi, 2018-08-23 The first survey of the Pan African movement this century this book provides a history of the individuals and organisations that have sought the unity of all those of African origin as the basis for advancement and liberation Initially an idea and movement that took root among the African Diaspora in more recent times Pan Africanism has been embodied in the African Union the organisation of African states which includes the entire African Diaspora as its sixth region Hakim Adi covers many of the key political figures of the 20th century including Du Bois Garvey Malcolm X Nkrumah and Gaddafi as well as Pan African culture expression from N gritude to the wearing of the Afro hair style and the music of Bob Marley

The Communist International, Anti-Imperialism and Racial Equality in British Dominions Oleksa Drachewych, 2018-12-07 This book analyzes the stance of international communism towards nationality anti colonialism and racial equality as defined by the Communist International Comintern during the interwar period Central to the volume is a comparative analysis of the communist parties of three British dominions South Africa Canada and Australia demonstrating how each party attempted to follow Moscow s lead and how each party produced its own attempts to deal with these issues locally while considering the limits of their own agency within the movement at large

Pan-Africanism Hakim Adi, 2018-08-23 The first survey of the Pan African movement this century this book provides a history of the individuals and organisations that have sought the unity of all those of African origin as the basis for advancement and liberation Initially an idea and movement that took root among the African Diaspora in more recent times Pan Africanism has been embodied in the African Union the organisation of African states which includes the entire African Diaspora as its sixth region Hakim Adi covers many of the key political figures of the 20th century including Du Bois Garvey Malcolm X Nkrumah and Gaddafi as well as Pan African culture expression from N gritude to the wearing of the Afro hair style and the music of Bob Marley

Global Africa Dorothy Hodgson, Judith Byfield, 2017-08-01 Global Africa is a striking original volume that disrupts the dominant narratives that continue to frame our discussion of Africa complicating conventional views of the region as a place of violence despair and victimhood The volume documents the significant global connections circulations and contributions that African people ideas and goods have made throughout the world from the United States and South Asia to Latin America Europe and elsewhere Through succinct and engaging pieces by scholars policy makers activists and journalists the volume provides a wholly original view of a continent at the center of global historical processes rather than on the periphery Global Africa offers fresh complex and insightful visions of a continent in flux Pan-Africanism Mano Delea, 2024-08-20 Against the background of a changing world order colonial powers frequently challenged Pan Africanism and the reasonable arguments voiced in Pan African Congresses In Pan Africanism Visions Initiatives and Transformations Mano Delea highlights how Pan Africanism moved its epicenter as the circumstances of world politics changed from the Diaspora to Africa where it was transformed and institutionalized Unlike other research done on Pan Africanism Delea offers three new additions to this academic research by addressing and analyzing the responses of leading historical newspapers to the Pan African Congresses from 1900 to 1945 examining the transformation of and division between Pan Africanism as a social movement and as an institutionalized phenomenon and discussing the epistemologies and knowledge production within Pan Africanism throughout its history The Interwar World Andrew Denning, Heidi J.S. Tworek, 2023-08-29 The Interwar World collects an international group of over 50 contributors to discuss analyze and interpret this crucial period in twentieth century history A comprehensive understanding of the interwar era has been limited by Euro American approaches and strict adherence to the temporal limits of the world wars The volume s contributors challenge the era s accepted temporal and geographic framings by privileging global processes and interactions Each contribution takes a global thematic approach integrating world regions into a shared narrative Three central questions frame the chapters First when was the interwar Viewed globally the years 1918 and 1939 are arbitrary limits and the volume explicitly engages with the artificiality of the temporal framework while closely examining the specific dynamics of the 1920s and 1930s Second where was the interwar Contributors use global history methodologies and training in varied world regions to decenter Euro American frameworks engaging directly with the usefulness of the interwar as both an era and an analytical category Third how global was the interwar Authors trace accelerating connections in areas such as public health and mass culture counterbalanced by processes of economic protectionism exclusive nationalism and limits to migration By approaching the era thematically the volume disaggregates and interrogates the meaning of the global in this era As a comprehensive guide this volume offers overviews of key themes of the interwar period for undergraduates while offering up to date historiographical insights for postgraduates and scholars interested in this pivotal period in global history The Anticolonial Front John Munro, 2017-09-21 This is a transnational history of the activist and intellectual network that connected the Black freedom struggle in the United States to liberation movements across the globe in the aftermath of World War II John Munro charts the emergence of an anticolonial front within the postwar Black liberation movement comprising organisations such as the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People the Council on African Affairs and the American Society for African Culture and leading figures such as W E B Du Bois Claudia Jones Alphaeus Hunton George Padmore Richard Wright Esther Cooper Jackson Jack O Dell and C L R James Drawing on a diverse array of personal papers organisational records novels newspapers and scholarly literatures the book follows the fortunes of this political formation recasting the Cold War in light of decolonisation and racial capitalism and the postwar history of the United States in light of global developments Black London Marc Matera, 2015-05-05 This vibrant history of London in the twentieth century reveals the city as a key site in the development of black internationalism and anticolonialism Marc Matera shows the significant contributions of people of African descent to London's rich social and cultural history masterfully weaving together the stories of many famous historical figures and presenting their quests for personal professional and political recognition against the backdrop of a declining British Empire A groundbreaking work of intellectual history Black London will appeal to scholars and students in a variety of areas including postcolonial history the history of the African diaspora urban studies cultural studies British studies world history black studies and feminist studies
