Preventing Violent Conflicts A Strategy For Preventive Diplomacy:

Preventing Violent Conflicts Michael S. Lund,1996 Lund an international relations consultant defines early warning and preventive diplomacy looking at which methods work and why who uses them and recent preventive efforts and suggests how multilateral and national entities including the US government can overcome operational challenges to effective preventive action He outlines a more systematic global preventive regime that draws on the strengths of individual states the UN regional organizations and NGOs For students and scholars of international relations Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Preventing Violent Conflict Lawrence S. Woocher,2009 New wars will continue to erupt if greater and smarter efforts are not made to prevent them Current dangers stem from factors such as rise of unstable regimes global economic turbulence climate change and shift in global power distribution Preventing relapse after wars end is insufficient to prevent most new conflicts because post conflict recurrences constitute only a minority of all conflict outbreaks A wide range of governments including United States and many intergovernmental and nongovernmental organizations have made commitments to take serious efforts to prevent violent conflicts These commitments represent a more than adequate normative foundation and a supportive political environment for development of more effective conflict prevention strategies investigating its three main aspects agency methods and timing Preventing Deadly Conflict I. William Zartman,2015-10-29 Conflict is inherent to all human and inter state relations but it is not inevitable Since the end of the Cold War the prevention of conflict escalation into violence through management and resolution has become a fundamental objective of the international system So how does prevention work when it works and what can be done when tried and tested practices fail In this book I William Zartman offers a clear and authoritative guide to the key challenges of conflict prevention and the norms processes and methods used to dampen and diffuse inter and intra state conflict in the contemporary world Early stage techniques including awareness de escalation stalemate ripening and resolution are explored in full alongside the late or crisis stage techniques of interruption separation and integration Prevention he argues is a battle that is never won there is always more work to be done The search for prevention necessary but still imperfect continues into new imperatives new mechanisms new agents and new knowledge which this book helps discover and apply

Conflict Prevention Andreas Wenger, Daniel Möckli, 2003 Offering a new perspective the authors show how efforts to prevent violent civil wars could be much more effective if they incorporate the business sector Conflict Prevention from Rhetoric to Reality Albrecht Schnabel, David Carment, 2004-01-01 Together with local actors many governments regional organizations and the UN are embracing preventive action as a viable path towards sustainable peace The contributions to this volume trace conflict prevention efforts in various regional contexts and explain how preventive thinking is being successfully mainstreamed into the activities of regional organizations and the UN The European Union and Conflict Prevention Emma J. Stewart, 2006 The book examines the evolution of EU conflict prevention as an internal EU process and as an area of external cooperation with the UN OSCE and NATO Conflict prevention has emerged as a prominent EU policy in the post Cold War era Yet how suited is the organisation to practice conflict prevention and what does the record of cooperation with other key European organisations tell us about the EU s external priorities The book critically analyses the EU s policy and outcomes to date concluding that conflict prevention is underdeveloped by the EU and is in danger of being marginalised in favour of shorter term crisis management Moreover EU external cooperation reinforces this the priority is cooperation in crisis management with the UN and NATO rather than longer term cooperation with the OSCE
