Life

Henry was the third surviving son of King John I and his wife Philippa, sister of King Henry IV of England. He was baptized in Porto, and may have been born there, probably when the royal couple was living in the city's old mint, now called Casa do Infante (Prince's House), or in the region nearby. Prince Henry The Navigator:

Prince Henry "the Navigator" Peter Edward Russell, Peter Russell, MD Frcpa, Sir Peter Russell, Frc, 2000-01-01 Henry the Navigator is a legendary almost mythical figure in late medieval history Together with Columbus he was considered one of the progenitors of modernity a man who dared to challenge the scientific assumptions of his age and by so doing was responsible for liberating Europeans from the geographical constraints which had bound them since the collapse of the Roman Empire His image as imperialist and above all maritime mathematical and navigational pioneer has been slow to die Yet there has been no English life of this hero of both science and of action since Beazley's of 1895 This book therefore represents the first re-evaluation of his life in over a century Peter Russell has made use of much recently published documentary evidence to provide an eloquent sophisticated and highly readable account of Henry's life While full attention is given to all aspects of his voyages of discovery in the African Atlantic including their economic and cultural consequences and the difficult questions of international law and papal jurisdiction Russell also examines in detail the other spheres of activity which contributed to his fame or sometimes brought it into question
