Comparative Tort Law Mauro Bussani, 2021-02-26 This revised second edition of Comparative Tort Law Global Perspectives offers an updated and enriched framework for analysing and understanding the current state of tort law around the world Using a critical comparative methodology it covers not only the common tort law issues but also many jurisdictions often overlooked in the mainstream literature Contributions explore illuminating case studies from tort systems in Europe the US Latin America Asia and sub Saharan Africa including new chapters specifically discussing tort law in Brazil India and Russia

Torts on Three Continents Kylie Burns, Jodi Gardner, Jonathan Morgan, Sandy Steel, 2024-08-06 Professor Jane Stapleton is one of the world's leading experts on causation and has had a profound impact on tort law scholarship both in terms of the incredible range of topics she has contributed to and across the multiple countries she has worked in Torts on Three Continents Honouring Jane Stapleton brings together a group of scholars from Stapleton's home country Australia from the United Kingdom where she spent much of her professional career and the United States where she has made such a significant contribution to celebrate and honour her work Torts on Three Continents reveals the impressive and enviable breadth of Jane Stapleton's scholarship while contributing to many of the ongoing and traditional debates in tort The volume is split into four parts The first part focuses on general themes that arise in Stapleton's work including the academic influence on judges the role of insurance in compensation the impact of vulnerability on tort law and liability of public authorities The second part considers aspects of liability in the tort of negligence including duties of care for psychiatric harm The third part is dedicated completely to causation with three chapters from authors in three different countries reflecting on the impact of Stapleton's work in this area. The final section covers a variety of different aspects of tort law and compensation systems including harms committed in the public interest, damage in economic torts, statutory product liability reforms and alternative compensation scheme design. Powerful and thought provoking, this book will provide its readers with an appreciation of the magnitude of Jane Stapleton's contribution across the common law world and a novel perspective on some of the more modern challenges faced in tort law.
