

The image features a black silhouette of a person sitting in a meditative lotus position, facing away from the viewer. The background is a vibrant, cosmic scene with a dark, star-filled space. A large, multi-colored nebula or aurora-like structure in shades of purple, blue, and orange radiates from behind the figure. Numerous bright, multi-colored light beams or rays emanate from the top of the figure's head, spreading out across the upper half of the image. In the upper right quadrant, the text "What is the NEW AGE?" is written in a bold, white, sans-serif font. The word "NEW" is in all caps and larger than "AGE", which is also in all caps. The word "What" is in title case. The entire text is set against the purple and blue nebula background.

Orthodox Christianity, New Age Spirituality and Vernacular Religion Eugenia Roussou, 2021-04-08 This anthropological work thoroughly illustrates the novel synthesis of Christian religion and New Age spirituality in Greece It challenges the single faith approach that traditionally ties southern European countries to Christianity and focuses on how processes of globalization influence and transform vernacular religiosity Based on long term anthropological fieldwork in Greece this book demonstrates how the popular belief in the evil eye produces a creative affinity between religion and spirituality in everyday practice The author analyses a variety of significant research themes including lived and vernacular religion alternative spirituality and healing ritual performance and religious material culture The book offers an innovative social scientific interpretation of contemporary religiosity while engaging with a multiplicity of theoretical analytic and empirical directions It contributes to current key debates in social sciences with regard to globalization and secularization religious pluralism contemporary spirituality and the New Age movement gender power and the body health illness and alternative therapeutic systems senses perception and the supernatural the spiritual marketplace creativity and the individualization of religion in a multicultural world

American Feminism and the Birth of New Age Spirituality Catherine Tumber, 2002-09-18 Contrary to popular thought New Age spirituality did not suddenly appear in American life in the 1970s and 80s In American Feminism and the Birth of New Age Spirituality Catherine Tumber demonstrates that the New Age movement first flourished more than a century ago during the Gilded Age under the mantle of New Thought Based largely on research in popular journals self help manuals newspaper accounts and archival collections American Feminism and the Birth of New Age Spirituality explores the contours of the New Thought movement Through the lives of well known figures such as Mary Baker Eddy Madame Helena Petrovna Blavatsky and Edward Bellamy as well as through more obscure but more representative New Thoughters such as Abby Morton Diaz Emma Curtis Hopkins Ursula Gestefeld Lilian Whiting Sarah Farmer and Elizabeth Towne Tumber examines the historical conditions that gave rise to New Thought She pays close attention to the ways in which feminism became grafted with varying degrees of success to emergent forms of liberal culture in the late nineteenth century progressive politics the Social Gospel humanist psychotherapy bohemian subculture and mass market journalism American Feminism and the Birth of New Age Spirituality questions the value of the new age movement then and now to the pursuit of women's rights and democratic renewal

Spiritual Leadership in the Entrepreneurial Business Mario Fernando, 2007 In this well informed insightful and comprehensive study Mario Fernando critically explores the complex and multiform interplay of management theory and practice personal biographies theologies of faith and cultural dynamics in order to elaborate and advance a coherent theory of spiritual leadership George Gotsis and Zoe Kortezi Entrepreneurship and Innovation In this example of science and theory meeting emerging reality Mario Fernando delves into the complex dimensions of the interplay of the science of management theologies of faith and the dynamics of culture to first understand and then construct and advance a theory of spiritual leadership With real world insights and reflections from himself and others he addresses theory to practice implications and cautions against creating just another fad This insightful and thought provoking book provides a timely read and focus for reflection for organizational leaders concerned with success in the new age economy and global society and who seek a path to understand their own personal and pragmatic spiritual leadership grounding Gary D Geroy Colorado State University US The book will be an important contribution to the literature and will certainly open up some new avenues of research and inquiry Ralph L Piedmont Loyola College in Maryland US Although interest in workplace spirituality continues to soar the literature and empirical research on non Western non Christian spirituality in entrepreneurship and leadership is almost non existent Mario Fernando s unique study fills the gap in the literature exploring cross cultural and religious distinctions of the contemporary meaning and enactment of spirituality in organizations Case studies of thirteen influential spiritually motivated Buddhist Hindu Christian and Muslim entrepreneurs are used to explore the significant impact of religion upon the management and leadership of an organization The book concludes that although each entrepreneur s outward practice of spiritual leadership conformed to personal religious beliefs these practices had two common aims a connection with self others and or an ultimate reality and a need to direct and motivate self and or others to develop an organizational culture founded on a sense of shared community This unique and fascinating work will strongly appeal to entrepreneurship leadership and business and management researchers and scholars with a particular interest in the interplay between entrepreneurship and spiritual leadership

Perspectives on the New Age James R. Lewis, J. Gordon Melton, 1992-11-03 This book begins with a comprehensive historical section that places the New Age within the context of its predecessor movements It then focuses on specialized aspects of this subculture from essays on the convergence of New Age spirituality with women s spirituality to an essay on how Evangelical Christians have responded to the movement The book also examines the international impact of the New Age

Enjoying the Beat of Phrase: An Emotional Symphony within New Age Spirituality New Age Spirituality

In some sort of consumed by monitors and the ceaseless chatter of quick interaction, the melodic splendor and mental symphony produced by the published word frequently diminish into the backdrop, eclipsed by the persistent sound and interruptions that permeate our lives. However, situated within the pages of New Age Spirituality New Age Spirituality a stunning literary treasure full of fresh feelings, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by an outstanding composer of language, this captivating masterpiece conducts readers on a mental journey, skillfully unraveling the hidden melodies and profound affect resonating within each cautiously crafted phrase. Within the depths with this poignant analysis, we shall discover the book is central harmonies, analyze their enthralling writing fashion, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
