Bibliography of English Literature George Watson,Ian Roy Willison,1974 Universities in the Age of Reform, 1800-1870 Matthew Andrews,2018-06-01 This book considers a crucial moment in the development of English higher education and also provides a new and comprehensive history of the early decades of Durham University During the Age of Reform innovative ideas about the role and purpose of a university were moving at an unprecedented pace Proposals for new institutions in all parts of the country were developing quickly and resulted in the foundation of Durham University London University later re styled University College London and King s College London While normally overshadowed by the London institutions this book demonstrates not only that Durham attempted to produce a far broader institution than any historian has given its founders credit for but that a remarkable attempt at a third way in English higher education has been neglected Matthew Andrews therefore not only provides the first fully researched account of this important national institution since 1932 but also carefully situates Durham in its contemporary context and alongside the two other most prominent emerging institutions of that time The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George

Watson,I. R. Willison,1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries History of Universities:
