s own mouthpiece the Web site nodepression.com declared its terrain to be alternative country whatever that is. Despite alt country's murky parameters its origins indeed its patron saints are generally acknowledged to range from the Carter Family and Hank Williams as interpreters of traditional American country to the country rock fusions of Gram Parsons and Steve Earle. Just as other musical genres before it have distanced themselves from the popular and commercial center from the start alt country has positioned itself as a different kind of music than the slick country sounds emanating from Nashville hit machines such as Garth Brooks and Shania Twain. And yet alt country's embrace of authenticity and disdain for commercialism while simultaneously injecting into a traditional working class music form an often cosmopolitan flavor and Generation X values has resulted in a fascinating hybrid full of contradictions. In Old Roots New Routes Pamela Fox and Barbara Ching bring together a range of scholars to investigate as never before this significant contemporary music form providing in addition new ways to approach the worlds of country and alternative music more generally. Individual essays explore the work of a variety of artists including Neko Case, Jay Farrar, Justin Treviño and alt country hero Gram Parsons along with promotional rhetoric, album art, advertising and fan Web sites to offer readers a comprehensive understanding of how alt country functions as a distinct musical form. Pamela Fox is Associate Professor of English and currently the Director of the Women's and Gender Studies Program at Georgetown University. She is the author of Class Fictions: Shame and Resistance in the British Working Class Novel 1890-1945. Barbara Ching is Associate Professor at the University of Memphis. Her previous books include Wrong's What I Do Best: Hard Country Music and Contemporary Culture and Knowing Your Place: Rural Identity and Cultural Hierarchy, coedited with Gerald Creed. CMJ New Music Monthly, 1998-11. CMJ New Music Monthly the first consumer magazine to include a bound-in CD sampler is the leading publication for the emerging music enthusiast. NMM is a monthly magazine with interviews, reviews and special features. Each magazine comes with a CD of 15-24 songs by well-established bands, unsigned bands and everything in between. It is published by CMJ Network Inc. The Rock Cover Song Doyle Greene, 2014-03-24. Cover songs operate as a form of cultural discourse across various musical genres and different societal, historical and political conditions. Case studies include a comparative analysis of Jimi Hendrix's and Whitney Houston's versions of The Star Spangled Banner as well as a mapping of the trajectory of I Can't Get No Satisfaction from the original version by the Rolling Stones through cover versions by Otis Redding, Devo and Britney Spears. The radical deconstruction of pop and rock songs by the Residents and Laibach is also examined with additional studies of cover songs by such as Van Halen, Kim Wilde, Rufus Harley, the Four Tops, Pat Boone and Johnny Cash. Rather than questions of quality or how a cover song measures up as better or worse than other versions, this book focuses on the ideological implications and social stakes of the same old songs as they are reconfigured to consider, comment on and confront political issues of gender, sexuality, race, the nation, state and the generation gap. One-Track Mind Asif Siddiqi, 2022-08-30. The song remains the most basic unit of modern pop music. Shaped into being by historical forces, cultural aesthetic and technical, the song provides both performer and audience with a world marked off by a short discrete and temporally demarcated experience One Track Mind Capitalism Technology and the Art of the Pop Song brings together 16 writers to weigh in on 16 iconic tracks from the history of modern popular music Arranged chronologically in order of release of the tracks and spanning nearly five decades these essays zigzag across the cultural landscape to present one possible history of pop music There are detours through psychedelic rock Afro pop Latin pop glam rock heavy metal punk postpunk adult contemporary rock techno hip hop and electro pop here More than just deep histories of individual songs these essays all expand far beyond the track itself to offer exciting and often counterintuitive histories of transformative moments in popular culture Collectively they show the undiminished power of the individual pop song both as distillations of important flashpoints and in their afterlives as ghostly echoes that persist undiminished but transform for succeeding generations Capitalism and its principal good capital help us frame these stories a fact that should surprise no one given the inextricable relationship between art and capitalism established in the twentieth century At the root readers will find here a history of pop with unexpected plot twists colorful protagonists and fitting denouements
