Q1 20 Road War Vietnam:

Q1 20 Jay Braden,2012-12-20 It is a vicious circle in that roads cannot be built until areas are relatively secure and roads cannot be secured until they are fully built This was the assessment of Roadbuilding one of the principal strategies of the Vietnam War Jim Decker an Army lieutenant wonders if his Vietnam tour will end with a CMH not a Congressional Medal of Honor but a casket with metal handles Not much on war and educated to be an engineer he wonders if his talents can make a difference in this unpopular struggle Can he and his men establish a base camp along national route QL 20 in the heart of deadly Ambush Alley Can they build road and simultaneously prepare for imminent attack by major NVA and VC forces Can Decker react to repeated threats and ambushes upon his men Persistent demanding challenges and novel solutions lead to an exciting surprise ending Vietnam Combat Operations 1972 - 1975 William E Le Gro,2013-09 The years between the signature of the Paris peace accords in 1972 and the final collapse of South Vietnam in 1975 are usually neglected Very often they are little more than a footnote in histories of the Vietnam War This does a great disservice to the fighting men of South Vietnam especially the infantry Rangers airborne troops and Marines who fought long bravely and under great handicaps and hardships in defense of their country This history of the South Vietnamese armed forces operations between 1972 and 1975 reveals that during 1973 they had the upper hand in conflicts with the North Vietnamese It was the abrupt end of American economic and material support in 1974 that doomed their efforts and brought about their eventual defeat This period also saw Soviet and Chinese aid to North Vietnam transform the NVA from a largely light infantry army to a mechanized tank and artillery heavy combined arms force that so greatly outgunned the ARVN Vietnam War After Action Reports , Jack of All Trades Ronald L. History and Museums Division,1977 The Vietnamese War David Elliott,2016-04-15 A monumental work of research and analysis this is a history of the Vietnam War in a single province of the Mekong Delta over the period 1930 1975

More precisely it is a study of the Vietnamese dimension of the Vietnam War focusing on the revolutionary movement that became popularly known as the Viet Cong. There are several distinctive features to this study: 1 it provides an explanation for the paradox of why the revolutionary movement was so successful during the war but unable to meet the challenges of postwar developments; 2 it challenges the dominant theme of contemporary political analysis which assumes that people are rational actors responding to events with careful calculations of self interest; 3 it closely examines province level documentation that casts light on a number of important historical controversies about the war. No other history of the Vietnam War has drawn on such a depth of documentation especially firsthand accounts that allow the Vietnamese participants to speak directly to us.
