The Wound of the Name Abdelkébir Khatibi, 2025-05-15 Winner of the Global Humanities Translation Prize Abdelk bir Khatibi s The Wound of the Name 1974 is a classic work of North African critical theory that seeks to decolonize French ways of looking at and writing about Maghreb cultures Writing at the height of French semiotics popularity and prestige Khatibi proposes intersemiotics as a study of signs that pass through related but different cultural geographies times and expressions Proverbs tattoos the rhetoric of lovemaking calligraphy and oral storytelling show a circulation of cultural signifiers over across and against borders Signs are not stagnant meaning is not fixed Khatibi s intent is in keeping with his emergent double critique which aims to redefine not only European understanding of North African culture but also North African self understanding by freeing it from the anthropological mandates of the modern colonial era as well as from the retrenched theocratic models that were characteristic of North African postcolonial states

Tattoo Histories Sinah Theres Kloß, 2019-11-25 Tattoo Histories is an edited volume which analyses and discusses the relevance of tattooing in the socio cultural construction of bodies boundaries and identities among both individuals and groups Its interdisciplinary approach facilitates historical as well as contemporary perspectives Rather than presenting a universal essentialized history of tattooing the volume s objective is to focus on the entangled and transcultural histories narratives and practices related to tattoos Contributions stem from various fields including Archaeology Art History Classics History Linguistics Media and Literary Studies Social and Cultural Anthropology and Sociology They advance the current endeavour on the part of tattoo scholars to challenge Eurocentric and North American biases prevalent in much of tattoo research by including various analyses based in locations such as Malaysia Israel East Africa and India The thematic focus is on the transformative capacity of tattoos and tattooing with regard to the social construction of bodies and subjectivity the re creation of social relationships through the definition of non tattooed others the formation and consolidation of group identities traditions and authenticity and the conceptualization of art and its relevance to tattoo artist tattooee relations The Film Cheat Murray

Pomerance, 2020-10-15 Murray Pomerance venerated film scholar is the first to take on the cheat in film where cheating constitutes a collection of production performance and structuring maneuvers intended to foster the impression of a screen reality that does not exist as presented This usually calls for a suspension of disbelief in the viewer but that rests on the assumption that disbelief is problematic for viewership and that we must find some way to suspend or disconnect it in order to allow for the entertainment of the fiction in its own terms The Film Cheat explores forty five aspects of the cheat analyzing classic films such as Singin in the Rain and Chinatown to more contemporary films like The Revenant and Baby Driver with Pomerance engaging his encyclopedic knowledge of film history to point out numerous instances of suspensions of disbeliefs Whether or not Gene Kelly is actually dancin in the rain or if Elliott is really flying on his bicycle carrying E T these cheats are what make movie magic Elegantly weaving the narrative for one to dip into at random or to read from cover to cover Pomerance turns things upside down so that the audience actually finds pleasure in the cheat itself pleasure in the disbelief To see the elegant fake the supremely accomplished simulacrum is a pleasure in its own right indeed one of the fundamental pleasures of cinema
