Push Button Feminista Jones:

Reclaiming Our Space Feminista Jones, 2019-01-29 A treatise of Black women's transformative influence in media and society placing them front and center in a new chapter of mainstream resistance and political engagement In Reclaiming Our Space social worker activist and cultural commentator Feminista Jones explores how Black women are changing culture society and the landscape of feminism by building digital communities and using social media as powerful platforms As Jones reveals some of the best loved devices of our shared social media language are a result of Black women's innovations from well known movement building hashtags BlackLivesMatter SayHerName and BlackGirlMagic to the now ubiquitous use of threaded tweets as a marketing and storytelling tool For some these online dialogues provide an introduction to the work of Black feminist icons like Angela Davis Barbara Smith bell hooks and the women of the Combahee River Collective For others this discourse provides a platform for continuing their feminist activism and scholarship in a new interactive way Complex conversations around race class and gender that have been happening behind the closed doors of academia for decades are now becoming part of the wider cultural vernacular one pithy tweet at a time With these important online conversations not only are Black women influencing popular culture and creating sociopolitical movements they are also galvanizing a new generation to learn and engage in Black feminist thought and theory and inspiring change in communities around them Hard hitting intelligent incisive yet bursting with humor and pop culture savvy Reclaiming Our Space is a survey of Black feminism's past present and future and it explains why intersectional movement building will save us all

Modern HERstory Blair Imani, 2018-10-16 An inspiring and radical celebration of 70 women girls and nonbinary people who have changed and are still changing the world from the Civil Rights Movement and Stonewall riots through Black Lives Matter and beyond With a radical and inclusive approach to history Modern HERstory profiles and celebrates seventy women and nonbinary champions of progressive social change in a bold colorful illustrated format for all ages Despite making huge contributions to the liberation movements of the last century and today all of these trailblazers come from backgrounds and communities that are traditionally overlooked and under celebrated not just women but people of color queer people trans people disabled people young people and people of faith Authored by rising star activist Blair Imani Modern HERstory tells the important stories of the leaders and movements that are changing the world right here and right now and will inspire you to do the same

The Paralysis of Analysis in African American Studies Stephen Ferguson II, 2023-09-21 Stephen C Ferguson II provides a philosophical examination of Black popular culture for the first time From extensive discussion of the philosophy and political economy of Hip Hop music through to a developed exploration of the influence of the postmodernism poststructuralist ideology on African American studies he argues how postmodernism ideology plays a seminal role in justifying the relationship between corporate capitalism and Black popular culture Chapters cover topics such as cultural populism capitalism and Black liberation the philosophy of Hip Hop music and Harold Cruse's influence on the cultural turn in African American studies Ferguson combines case studies of past and contemporary Black cultural and intellectual productions with a Marxist ideological critique to provide a cutting edge reflection on the economic structure in which Black popular culture emerged He highlights the contradictions that are central to the juxtaposition of Black cultural artists as political participants in socioeconomic struggle and the political participants who perform the rigorous task of social criticism Adopting capitalism as an explanatory framework Ferguson investigates the relationship between postmodernism as social theory current manifestations of Black popular culture and the theoretical work of Black thinkers and scholars to demonstrate how African American studies have been shaped
