The Strategic Poet Diane Lockward, 2021 The Strategic Poet Honing the Craft focuses on the craft of poetry and is based on the belief that craft can be taught and the best teacher of craft is a good poem This book assumes a knowledgeable reader that is one who already knows the language of poetry and already practices the craft This book is organized into thirteen sections each one devoted to a specific poetic strategy While only thirteen strategies are used for organizational purposes the reader will find many additional strategies referred to and discussed within the sections There is a progression from one section to the next but each section also stands alone so the reader or teacher can follow the order of the Contents or move about freely among the sections Each section begins with a Craft Talk solicited from a well known poet with a clear mastery of craft Each Craft Talk is followed by Model Poems and Prompts Each Model Poem is followed by an analysis of its craft elements especially its use of the section's strategy One Model Poem in each section is followed by a Commentary from the poet who wrote the poem and is focused on a particular strategy used in the poem Each of the thirty six Prompts is followed by two Sample Poems written to the prompts These seventy two poems demonstrate that the prompts are not mere exercises and can produce terrific poems Each section ends with three Bonus Prompts There thirty nine additional prompts were contributed by thirteen contemporary poets These short prompts provide additional practice with the strategies can be used multiple times and should lead to some good poems Contributors include 114 of our best contemporary poets This book is suitable for use by poets working independently by poets in writing groups and by teachers in the classroom

Train to Agra Vandana Khanna, 2001-08-15 Calling upon two cultures Vandana Khanna's Train to Agra meditates on the effects of displacement and expatriation on the construction of a young Indian American woman's identity The physical journeys undertaken by the speaker reflect her inner journey from immigrant child to Indian American woman struggling to find her place between India and America Krishna and Jesus samosas and hamburgers The speaker constantly tries to recapture visions smells and sounds of her childhood and her travels but cannot do so without imagination Her memory fails her so through metaphor she invents her past as it should have been Traveling through her reflections on childhood fate faith death and belonging she comes to accept her reality as a construct of lived memories and wished for fantasies International Who's Who in Poetry 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets
