Secrets On The Ethics Of Concealment And Revelation:

Secrets Sissela Bok, 2011-03-16 The author of Lying shows how the ethical issues raised by secrets and secrecy in our careers or private lives take us to the heart of the critical questions of private and public morality Secrets Sissela Bok, 1982 Secrets, 1984 Faith, Fallibility, and the Virtue of Anxiety D. Malone-France, 2012-05-21 Malone France brings together important themes from religious studies philosophy and political theory to articulate a fundamental re-conception of religious faith and an innovative argument for classic liberal norms Artful Truths Helena de Bres, 2021-09-10 Offers a philosophical perspective on the nature and value of writing a memoir Artful Truths offers a concise guide to the fundamental philosophical questions that arise when writing a literary work about your own life Bringing a philosopher's perspective to a general audience Helena de Bres addresses what a memoir is how the genre relates to fiction memoirists responsibilities to their readers and subjects and the question of why to write a memoir at all Along the way she delves into a wide range of philosophical issues including the nature of the self the limits of knowledge the idea of truth the obligations of friendship the relationship between morality and art and the question of what makes a life meaningful Written in a clear and conversational style it offers a resource for those who write teach and study memoirs as well as those who love to read them With a combination of literary and philosophical knowledge de Bres takes the many challenges directed at memoirists seriously while ultimately standing in defense of a genre that for all its perplexities and maybe partly because of them continually proves to be both beloved and valuable Sharing and Hiding Religious Knowledge in Early Judaism, Christianity, and Islam Mladen Popović, Lautaro Roig Lanzillotta, Clare Wilde, 2018-08-21 Few studies focus on the modes of knowledge transmission or concealment or the trends of continuity or change from the Ancient to the Late Antique worlds In Antiquity knowledge was cherished as a scarce good cultivated through the close teacher student relationship and often preserved in the closed circle of the initiated From Assyrian and Babylonian cuneiform texts to a Shi'ite Islamic tradition this volume explores how and why knowledge was shared or concealed by diverse communities in a range of Ancient and Late Antique cultural contexts From caves by the Dead Sea to Alexandria both normative and heterodox approaches to knowledge in Jewish Christian and Muslim communities are explored Biblical and quranic passages as well as gnostic rabbinic and esoteric Islamic approaches are discussed In this volume a range of scholars from Assyrian studies to Jewish Christian and Islamic studies examine diverse approaches to and modes of knowledge transmission and concealment shedding new light on both the interconnectedness as well as the unique aspects of the monotheistic faiths and their relationship to the ancient civilisations of the Fertile Crescent Real Life Cryptology Benedek Láng, 2025-10-01 A large number of enciphered documents survived from early modern Hungary This area was a particularly fertile territory where cryptographic methods proliferated because a large portion of the population was living in the frontier zone and participated or was forced to participate in the network of the information flow A quantitative analysis of sixteenth century to seventeenth
