Secularism And Its Critics Themes In Politics:

Secularism and Its Critics Rajeev Bhargava, 2011 Visualizing Secularism and Religion Alev Cinar, Srirupa Roy, 2012-05-22 An investigation of the role of religion in the formation of secular national public spheres in the Middle East and South Asia Landscapes of the Secular Nicolas Howe, 2016-09-05 What does it mean to see the American landscape in a secular way asks Nicolas Howe at the outset of this innovative ambitious and wide ranging book It s a surprising question because of what it implies we usually aren t seeing American landscapes through a non religious lens but rather as inflected by complicated little examined concepts of the sacred Fusing geography legal scholarship and religion in a potent analysis Howe shows how seemingly routine questions about how to look at a sunrise or a plateau or how to assess what a mountain is both physically and ideologically lead to complex arguments about the nature of religious experience and its implications for our lives as citizens In American society nominally secular but committed to permitting a diversity of religious beliefs and expressions such questions become all the more fraught and can lead to difficult often unsatisfying compromises regarding how to interpret and inhabit our public lands and spaces A serious commitment to secularism Howe shows forces us to confront the profound challenges of true religious diversity in ways that often will have their ultimate expression in our built environment This provocative exploration of some of the fundamental aspects of American life will help us see the land law and society anew The Secular Paradox Joseph Blankholm, 2022-06-07 Choice Outstanding Academic Title 2023 A radically new way of understanding secularism which explains why being secular can seem so strangely religious For much of America s rapidly growing secular population religion is an inescapable source of skepticism and discomfort It shows up in politics and in holidays but also in common events like weddings and funerals In The Secular Paradox Joseph Blankholm argues that despite their desire to avoid religion nonbelievers often seem religious because Christianity influences the culture around them so deeply Relying on several years of ethnographic research among secular activists and organized nonbelievers in the United States the volume explores how very secular people are ambivalent toward belief community ritual conversion and tradition As they try to embrace what they share secular people encounter again and again that they are becoming too religious And as they reject religion they feel they have lost too much Trying to strike the right balance secular people alternate between the two sides of their ambiguous condition absolutely not religious and part of a religion like secular tradition Blankholm relies heavily on the voices of women and people of color to understand what it means to live with the secular paradox The struggles of secular misfits the people who mis fit normative secularism in the United States show that becoming secular means rejecting parts of life that resemble Christianity and embracing a European tradition that emphasizes reason and avoids emotion Women people of color and secular people who have left non Christian religions work against the limits and contradictions of secularism to create new ways of being secular that are transforming the American religious landscape They are pioneering the most interesting and important forms of secular religiosity in America today Social Identities Between the Sacred and the Secular Abby Day, Giselle Vincett, Christopher R. Cotter, 2016-04-01 Focusing on the important relationship between the sacred and the secular this book demonstrates that it is not paradoxical to think in terms of both secular and sacred or neither in different times and places International experts from a range of disciplinary perspectives draw on local national and international contexts to provide a fresh analytical approach to understanding these two contested poles Exploring such phenomena at an individual institutional or theoretical level each chapter contributes to the central message of the book that the in between is real embodied and experienced every day and informs and is informed by intersecting social identities Social Identities between the Sacred and the Secular provides an essential resource for continued research into these concepts challenging us to re think where the boundaries of sacred and secular lie and what may lie between The Politics of Religious Literacy Justine Ellis, 2022-11-07 Religious Literacy has become a popular concept for navigating religious diversity in public life Spanning classrooms to boardrooms The Politics of Religious Literacy challenges commonly held understandings of religious literacy as an inclusive framework for engaging with religion in modern multifaith democracies As the first book to rethink religious literacy from the perspective of affect theory and secularism studies this new approach calls for a constructive reconsideration focused on the often overlooked feelings and practices that inform our questionably secular age This study offers fresh insights into the changing dynamics of religion and secularism in the public sphere The Critical Study of Non-Religion Christopher R. Cotter, 2020-07-09 This book acts as a bridge between the critical study of religion and empirical studies of religion in the real world Chris Cotter presents a concise and up to date critical survey of research on non religion in the UK and beyond before presenting the results of extensive research in Edinburgh s Southside which blurs the boundary between religion and non religion In doing so Cotter demonstrates that these are dynamic subject positions and phenomena can occupy both at the same time or neither depending on who is doing the positioning and what issues are at stake This book details an approach that avoids constructing religion as in some way unique whilst also fully incorporating non religious subject positions into religious studies It provides a rich engagement with a wide variety of theoretical material rooted in empirical data which will be essential reading for those interested in critical sociological and anthropological study of the contemporary non religious landscape The Church in a Secular Age Silje Kvamme Bjørndal, 2018-09-20 How can the church navigate the challenges of our secular age In The Church in a Secular Age Norwegian and Pentecostal scholar Silje Kvamme Bjørndal takes on three dynamic thinkers each in their own way in search for insights to this question Philosopher Charles Taylor offers the backdrop for the conversation as Bjørndal carefully sifts out some of his most central tenets for understanding our secular age Bjørndal then turns to the theologian and ethicist Stanley Hauerwas and critically engages his notion of the church as a community set apart from our secular age By bringing several of Hauerwas s interlocutors into the conversation Bjørndal manages to bring out both the acute relevance and the shortcomings of his ecclesiology Thus she finds that another turn is needed in order to offer a concrete as well as creative contribution to this ecclesiological conversation Considering the undeveloped pneumatological undercurrent in Hauerwas's work it proves fruitful to engage the leading Pentecostal scholar Amos Yong and his foundational pneumatology This engagement results in a shift of agency from the community to the Spirit And keeping up the dialogue with Taylor's secular age Bjorndal demonstrates how the Spirit's agency is crucial for the church as it attempts to navigate the particular challenges and opportunities of a secular age

Martin Luther's Theology of Two Kingdoms in Buddhist and Christian Communities Pa Yaw, 2024-05-29 Socially engaged religion teaches that people of faith have a responsibility to address and reduce suffering in all its forms both physical and spiritual including suffering resulting from social injustice exploitation oppression false faith and so forth True religion engages with society to alleviate suffering and bring transformation In other words religious violence is an obscenity a deviation from the true character of religion Martin Luther's Theology of Two Kingdoms in Buddhist and Christian Communities examines the principle of separation between religion and politics in the context of both Buddhist and Christian communities In predominantly Buddhist contexts such as Myanmar where a reciprocal relationship between religion and politics is expected separation is not effective Attempts by Christians to separate religion and politics cause the church to run away from tyranny and follow the state with blind obedience Martin Luther's model of two distinct but interconnected systems for religion and politics creates space for each institution to give constructive advice and criticism to the other for the health of all human beings

The Routledge Encyclopedia of Films Sabine Haenni, Sarah Barrow, John White, 2014-09-15 The Routledge Encyclopedia of Films comprises 200 essays by leading film scholars analysing the most important influential innovative and interesting films of all time Arranged alphabetically each entry explores why each film is significant for those who study film and explores the social historical and political contexts in which the film was produced Ranging from Hollywood classics to international bestsellers to lesser known representations of national cinema this collection is deliberately broad in scope crossing decades boundaries and genres The encyclopedia thus provides an introduction to the historical range and scope of cinema produced throughout the world
