was good In one horrifying instant it seemed my world was shattered when the twin towers fell My loving husband was gone and the life I had known went with him It took me years to crawl out from the wreckage of that event and though I cant say Im healed I consider myself a survivor The events of 9 11 changed our entire country as profoundly as it changed my young family We all promised to never forget and that is what I am trying to do by sharing my story I want the world to never forget my husband Danny as well as the events that took him away from us He meant the world to me and I want his legacy to live on the way he still lives in our hearts Kathy Trant
