Seduction Of Ethics Transforming The Social Sciences:

Seduction of Ethics Will C. van den Hoonaard, 2011-06-13 Formal research ethics committees in Canada now function as an industry costing over thirty five million dollars annually The Seduction of Ethics argues that while ethics codes are alluring to the public they fuel moral panic and increase demands for institutional accountability Will C van den Hoonaard explores the research ethics review process itself by analysing the moral cosmology and practices of ethics committees regarding research and researchers The Seduction of Ethics also investigates how researchers have tailored their approaches in response to technical demands leading social science disciplines to resemble each other more closely and lose the richness of their research Van den Hoonaard reveals an idiosyncratic and inconsistent world in which researchers employ particular strategies of avoidance or partial or full compliance as they seek approval from ethics committees Finding

Common Ground Ron Iphofen, 2017-03-03 This volume addresses concerns about the impact of current systems for the management of research ethics in the social sciences Many procedures in place are seen as inappropriate as they were originally designed for use in biomedical research The content identifies areas of common ground core ethics principles and areas of particular concern The Routledge Handbook of Translation and Ethics Kaisa Koskinen, Nike K.

Pokorn, 2020-12-16 The Routledge Handbook of Translation and Ethics offers a comprehensive overview of issues surrounding ethics in translating and interpreting The chapters chart the philosophical and theoretical underpinnings of ethical thinking in Translation Studies and analyze the ethical dilemmas of various translatorial actors including translation trainers and researchers Authored by leading scholars and new voices in the field the 31 chapters present a wide coverage of emerging issues such as increasing technologization of translation posthumanism volunteering and activism accessibility and linguistic human rights Many chapters provide the first extensive overview of the topic or present new takes on established areas The book is divided into four parts with the first covering the most influential ethical theories Part II takes the perspective of agents in different contexts and the ethical dilemmas they face while Part III takes a critical look at central institutions structuring and controlling ethical behaviour Finally Part IV focuses on special issues and new challenges and signals new directions for further study This handbook is an indispensable resource for all students and researchers of translation and ethics within translation and interpreting studies multilingualism and comparative literature The SAGE Handbook of Qualitative Research Ethics Ron Iphofen, Martin Tolich, 2018-02-05 This handbook is a much needed and in depth review of the distinctive set of ethical considerations which accompanies qualitative research This is particularly crucial given the emergent dynamic and interactional nature of most qualitative research which too often allows little time for reflection on the important ethical responsibilities and obligations Contributions from leading international researchers have been carefully organised into six key thematic sections Part One Thick Descriptions Of Qualitative Research Ethics Part Two Qualitative Research Ethics By Technique Part Three Ethics As Politics Part Four Qualitative Research Ethics With

Vulnerable Groups Part Five Relational Research Ethics Part Six Researching Digitally This Handbook is a one stop resource on qualitative research ethics across the social sciences that draws on the lessons learned and the successful methods for surmounting problems the tried and true and the new The Ethics Rupture Will C. van den Hoonaard,Ann Hamilton,2016-04-06 For decades now researchers in the social sciences and humanities have been expressing a deep dissatisfaction with the process of research ethics review in academia Continuing the ongoing critique of ethics review begun in Will C van den Hoonaard s Walking the Tightrope and The Seduction of Ethics The Ethics Rupture offers both an account of the system s failings and a series of proposals on how to ensure that social research is ethical rather than merely compliant with institutional requirements Containing twenty five essays written by leading experts from around the world in various disciplines The Ethics Rupture is a landmark study of the problems caused by our current research ethics system and the ways in which scholars are seeking solutions The Oxford Handbook of Qualitative Research Patricia

Leavy,2020-09-07 The Oxford Handbook of Qualitative Research Second Edition presents a comprehensive interdisciplinary overview of the field of qualitative research Divided into eight parts the forty chapters address key topics in the field such as approaches to qualitative research philosophical perspectives narrative inquiry field research and interview methods text arts based and internet methods analysis and interpretation of findings and representation and evaluation The handbook is intended for students of all levels faculty and researchers across the disciplines and the contributors represent some of the most influential and innovative researchers as well as emerging scholars This handbook provides a broad introduction to the field of qualitative research to those with little to no background in the subject while providing substantive contributions to the field that will be of interest to even the most experienced researchers It serves as a user friendly teaching tool suitable for a range of undergraduate or graduate courses as well as individuals working on their thesis or other research projects With a focus on methodological instruction the incorporation of real world examples and practical applications and ample coverage of writing and representation this volume offers everything readers need to undertake their own qualitative studies

The SAGE Handbook of Qualitative Business and Management Research Methods Catherine Cassell,Ann L Cunliffe,Gina Grandy,2021-08-04 The SAGE Handbook of Qualitative Business and Management Research Methods provides a state of the art overview of qualitative research methods in the business and management field The Handbook celebrates the diversity of the field by drawing from a wide range of traditions and by bringing together a number of leading international researchers engaged in studying a variety of topics through multiple qualitative methods The chapters address the philosophical underpinnings of particular approaches to research contemporary illustrations references and practical guidelines for their use The two volumes therefore provide a useful resource for Ph D students and early career researchers interested in developing and expanding their knowledge and practice of qualitative research In covering established and emerging methods it also provides an invaluable source of information for faculty teaching qualitative research methods The contents of the Handbook are arranged into two volumes covering seven key themes Volume One History and Tradition Part One Influential Traditions underpinning qualitative research positivism interpretivism pragmatism constructionism critical poststructuralism hermeneutics postcolonialism critical realism mixed methods grounded theory feminist and indigenous approaches Part Two Research Designs ethnography field research action research case studies process and practice methodologies Part Three The Researcher positionality reflexivity ethics gender and intersectionality writing from the body and achieving critical distance Part Four Challenges research design access and departure choosing participants research across boundaries writing for different audiences ethics in international research digital ethics and publishing qualitative research Volume Two Methods and Challenges Part One Contemporary methods interviews archival analysis autoethnography rhetoric historical stories and narratives discourse analysis group methods sociomateriality fiction metaphors dramaturgy diary shadowing and thematic analysis Part Two Visual methods photographs drawing video web images semiotics and symbols collages documentaries Part Three Methodological developments aesthetics and smell fuzzy set comparative analysis sewing quilts netnography ethnomusicality software ANTI history emotion and pattern matching
