Seed Of Sarah Memoirs Of A Survivor:

Seed of Sarah Judith Magyar Isaacson, 1991-06 A first person account of the author as a 19 year old Hungarian Jewish girl sent to Auschwitz

Exile and Creativity Susan Rubin Suleiman, 1998 Essays that range chronologically from the Renaissance to the 1990s geographically from the Danube to the Andes and historically from the Inquisition to the Holocaust examine the complexities and tensions of exile focusing particularly on whether exile tends to block or to enhance artistic creativity 16 photos

Final Matters Szilárd Borbély, 2019-02-05 An award winning translator presents selections from the haunting final volumes of a leading voice in contemporary Hungarian poetry Szilárd Borbély one of the most celebrated writers to emerge from post Communist Hungary received numerous literary awards in his native country In this volume acclaimed translator Otilie Mulzet reveals the full range and force of Borbély's verse by bringing together generous selections from his last two books Final Matters and To the Body The original Hungarian text is set on pages facing the English translations and the book also features an afterword by Mulzet that places the poems in literary historical and biographical context Restless curious learned and alert Borbély weaves into his work an unlikely mix of Hungarian folk songs Christian and Jewish hymns classical myths police reports and unsettling accounts of abortions In her afterword Mulzet calls this collection a blasphemous and fragmentary prayer book that challenges us to rethink the boundaries of victimhood culpability and our own religious and cultural definitions

Women in Twentieth-Century Europe Ann Allen, 2007-11-19 Women's lives changed more in the 20th century than in any previous century It was a period of transformation not only of the political realm but also the household family and workplace Ranging widely over Europe this fascinating account is one of the first comprehensive surveys of its kind

Poland and the Holocaust in the Polish-American Press, 1926-1945 Magdalena Kubow, 2020-07-10 Contrary to the common notion that news regarding the unfolding Holocaust was unavailable or unreliable news from Europe was often communicated to North American Poles through the Polish language press This work engages with the origins debate and demonstrates that the Polish language press covered seminal issues during the interwar years the war and the Holocaust extensively on their front and main story pages and were extremely responsive professional and vocal in their journalism From Polish Jewish relations to the cause of the Second World War and subsequently the development of genocide related policy North American Poles had a different perspective from mainstream society on the causes and effects of what was happening New research for this book examines attitudes toward Jews prior to and during the Holocaust and how information on such attitudes was disseminated It utilizes selected Polish newspapers of the period 1926-1945 predominantly the Republika Gornik as well as survivor testimony

Music and Manipulation Steven Brown, Ulrik Volgsten, 2006 Since the beginning of human civilization music has been used as a device to control social behavior where it has operated as much to promote solidarity within groups as hostility between competing groups Music is an emotive manipulator that influences attitude motivation and behavior at many levels and in many contexts This volume is the first to address the social ramifications of music's behaviorally manipulative effects its morally questionable uses and control mechanisms and its economic and artistic regulation through commercialization thus highlighting not only music's diverse uses at the social level but also the ever fragile relationship between aesthetics and morality Food Preferences and Taste Helen M. Macbeth, 1997 An international team of contributors present cross disciplinary perspectives on food preferences and tastes showing the common themes of these fundamentals of human existence A comprehensive introduction outlines the themes and the links between them The American Bibliography of Slavic and East European Studies Patricia Leonard, Rebecca Routh, 2020-02-27 This bibliography first published in 1957 provides citations to North American academic literature on Europe Central Europe the Balkans the Baltic States and the former Soviet Union Organised by discipline it covers the arts humanities social sciences life sciences and technology Religious Perspectives in Modern Muslim and Jewish Literatures, The Cambridge History of Judaism: Volume 8, The Modern World, 1815-2000 Mitchell B. Hart, Tony Michels, 2017-09-28 The eighth and final volume of The Cambridge History of Judaism covers the period from roughly 1815-2000 Exploring the breadth and depth of Jewish societies and their manifold engagements with aspects of the modern world it offers overviews of modern Jewish history as well as more focused essays on political social economic intellectual and cultural developments The first part presents a series of interlocking surveys that address the history of diverse areas of Jewish settlement The second part is organized around the emancipation Here chapter themes are grouped around the challenges posed by and to this elemental feature of Jewish life in the modern period The third part adopts a thematic approach organized around the category culture with the goal of casting a wide net in terms of perspectives concepts and topics The final part then focuses on the twentieth century offering readers a sense of the dynamic nature of Judaism and Jewish identities and affiliations
