Seh Calaz S Work Unless Music:

The Zimdancehall Revolution Tanaka Chidora, Doreen Rumbidzai Tivenga, Ezra Chitando, 2023-11-07 Zimdancehall is a musical movement in Zimbabwe that has grown significantly since 2010 The Zimdancehall Revolution brings together critical essays on various aspects of Zimdancehall culture by scholars from diverse disciplines Traditionally music critics and senior academics have not taken Zimdancehall seriously regarding it as vulgar transient bubble gum lacking depth and in short a fad There were also allegations that the lyrics influenced factionalism incited violence and glorified drug use and unbridled promiscuity among the youth This book affords this movement the protracted intellectual engagement that it deserves and argues that Zimdancehall is more than just a musical genre but an everyday culture a way of life The genre's close association with the ghetto is telling and enables critics to look at it as a social movement a revolution or a raw petulant and raging disturbance of peace by those who live their lives on the margins It is thus a violent irruption onto the public space by marginalised young people whose presence as artistes creating art from the margins simultaneously as victims and agents circulating in a geography that escapes the limits of nationalist ideological and physical territory in a way subverts communitarian prescriptions and allows young people entry into the world albeit in a painful tumultuous and violent way The essays range from the mapping of the genre's historical development to theoretical interventions in understanding the genre and its relationship with various aspects of the Zimbabwean society like politics gender religion language dance cultural values and other genres

Cultures of Sustainable Peace Hyab Teklehaimanot Yohannes, Alison Phipps, Tawona Sitholé, 2024-12-10 This book shifts the focus of peacebuilding away from nation states and international organisations to make a powerful argument that sustainable peacebuilding is the work of ordinary people It brings together work done in Gaza Ghana Mexico Morocco and Zimbabwe alongside work with refugees in Scotland to argue for a place for successful intercultural relations as a central aim of peacebuilding moving beyond the more usual focus on economic development With a particular emphasis on addressing gender based violence and the role of women in peacebuilding together with a central role for arts and culture as a means of resistance and social change the chapters represent the fruit of collaborative work across geographical and cultural borders between artists activists and academics bringing a wide range of disciplinary perspectives to bear on situations of violence and precarity In a world where peace work can feel increasingly futile this book makes a powerful case for the crucial role of local action and cultural work and play in the creation of a better future The book will be open access under a CC BY ND licence
