Selamat Tinggal Jeanette:

Selamat Tinggal, Jeanette Titie Said, 1986 Popular Culture in Indonesia Ariel Heryanto, 2008-06-30 This book examines popular culture in Indonesia bringing material on Indonesia's media and popular culture to an English readership for the first time. It includes analysis of important themes including citizenship, gender, class, age, and ethnicity, showing how developments in Indonesian society more generally are inextricably linked to popular culture. A Literary Mirror I. Nyoman Darma Putra, 2011-01-01 A Literary mirror is the first English language work to comprehensively analyse Indonesian language literature from Bali from a literary and cultural viewpoint. It covers the period from 1920 to 2000. This is an extremely rich field for research into the ways Balinese view their culture and how they respond to external cultural forces. This work complements the large number of existing studies of Bali and its history, anthropology, traditional literature, and the performing arts. A Literary Mirror is an invaluable resource for those researching twentieth century Balinese authors who wrote in Indonesian. Until now such writers have received very little attention in the existing literature. An appendix gives short biographical details of many significant writers and lists their work. Fantasizing the Feminine in Indonesia Laurie Jo Sears, 1996 Presenting dialogues between prominent scholars of and from Indonesia and Indonesian women working in professional, activist, religious, and literary domains, the book dissolves essentialist notions of women and Indonesia that have arisen out of the tensions of empire. Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Indonesia Robert W. Hefner, 2018-01-03 Few countries as culturally rich, politically pivotal, and naturally beautiful as Indonesia are as often misrepresented in global media and conversation. Stretching 3,400 miles east to west along the equator, Indonesia is the fourth most populous country in the world and home to more than four hundred ethnic groups and several major world religions. This sprawling Southeast Asian nation is also the world's most populous Muslim majority country and the third largest democracy. Although in recent years the country has experienced serious challenges with regard to religious harmony, its trillion dollar economy is booming, and its press and public sphere are among the most vibrant in Asia. A land of cultural contrasts, contests, and contradictions, this ever-evolving country is today rising to even greater global prominence even as it redefines the terms of its national religious and civic identity. The Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Indonesia offers an overview of the modern making and contemporary dynamics of culture, society, and politics in this powerful Asian nation. It provides a comprehensive survey of key issues in Indonesian politics, economics, religion, and society. It is divided into six sections organized as follows: Cultural Legacies and Political Junctures; Contemporary Politics and Plurality; Markets and Economic Cultures; Muslims and Religious Plurality; Gender and Sexuality; Indonesia in an Age of Multiple Globalizations. Bringing together original contributions by leading scholars of Indonesia in law, political science, history, anthropology, sociology, religious studies, and gender studies, this Handbook provides an up-to-date interdisciplinary and academically rigorous exploration of Indonesia. It will be of interest to students, academics, policymakers, and others in search of reliable information on Indonesian politics, economics, religion, and society in an accessible format 34th Asia-Pacific Film Festival, 18-21 December 1989, Jakarta, Indonesia Federation of
