in the world The apostle therefore observes to them how that God by the gospel destroyed and brought to nought their human wisdom The learned Grecians and their great philosophers by all their wisdom did not know God they were not able to find out the truth in divine things But after they had done their utmost to no effect it pleased God at length to reveal himself by the gospel which they accounted foolishness He chose the foolish things of the world to confound the wise and the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty and the base things of the world and things that are despised yea and things which are not to bring to nought the things that are And the apostle informs them why he thus did in the verse of the text That no flesh should glory in his presence c
