The New Yorker Harold Wallace Ross, Katharine Sergeant Angell White, 2003-12 Encyclopedia of Contemporary Writers and Their Work Geoff Hamilton, Brian Jones, 2015-04-22 Presents an alphabetical reference guide detailing the lives and works of authors associated with the English language fiction of the twentieth and twenty first centuries The Hemingway Short Story George Monteiro, 2017-03-23 Ernest Hemingway revolutionized the American short story establishing himself as a master of realist fiction in the tradition of Guy de Maupassant Yet none of Hemingway's emulators has succeeded in duplicating his understated minimalist style In his Iceberg Theory of fiction only the tip of the story is seen on the surface the rest is submerged out of sight This study surveys the scope of Hemingway's mastery of the short story form enabling a fuller understanding of such works as Indian Camp Big Two Hearted River The Killers The Mother of a Queen In Another Country Hills Like White Elephants The Snows of Kilimanjaro and The Mercenaries among many others All 13 stories from his underrated Winner Take Nothing collection are evaluated in detail A Study Guide for William Sydney Porter's "Mammon and the Archer" Gale, Cengage Learning, 2016 A Study Guide for William Sydney Porter's Mammon and the Archer excerpted from Gale's acclaimed Short Stories for Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Short Stories for Students for all of your research needs Bowker's Guide to Characters in Fiction 2007, 2008-02 New Stories from the Midwest: 2012 Jason Lee Brown, Shanie Latham, 2013-03-22 As this fresh anthology proves there's a mix of writers and sensibilities that inhabit the literary Midwest as to make the term unpredictable Stuart Dybek MacArthur Fellow and author of The Coast of Chicago New Stories from the Midwest presents a collection of stories that celebrate an American region too often ignored in discussions about distinctive regional literature The editors solicited nominations from more than three hundred magazines literary journals and small presses and narrowed the selection to nineteen authors The stories written by Midwestern writers or focusing on the Midwest demonstrate that the quality of fiction from and about the heart of the country rivals that of any other region Guest editor John McNally introduces the anthology which features short fiction by Charles Baxter Dan Chaon Christopher Mohar Rebecca Makkai Lee Martin Anthony Doerr Roxanne Gay and others A Kite in the Wind Andrea Barrett, Peter Turchi, 2011-03-01 A Kite in the Wind is an anthology of essays by 20 veteran writers and master teachers While the contributors offer specific practical advice on such fundamental aspects of craft as characterization character names the first person point of view and unreliable narrators they also give extended thoughtful consideration to more sophisticated topics including imminence or the power of a sense of beginning creating and maintaining tension lushness and the deliberate manipulation of information to create particular effects The essays in A Kite in the Wind begin as personal investigations attempts to understand why a decision in a particular story or novel seemed unsuccessful to define a quality or problem that seemed either unrecognized or unsatisfactorily defined to understand what despite years of experience as a fiction writer resisted comprehension and to pursue haunting even unanswerable questions Unlike a how to book the anthology is less an instruction manual than it is an intimate visit with twenty very different writers as they explore topics that excite intrigue and even puzzle them Each discussion uses specific examples and illustrations including both canonical stories and novels and writing less frequently discussed from the 19th 20th and 21st centuries by both American and international authors The contributors share their hard earned insights for beginning and advanced writers with humility wit and compassion The first section of the book focuses on narration with particular attention paid to various kinds of narrators the second on strategic creation and presentation of character the third on some of the roles of the visual beginning with establishing setting and the fourth on structural and organizational issues from movement through time to the manipulation of information to create mystery and suspense
