Self And Soul A Defense Of Ideals:

Self and Soul Mark Edmundson, 2015-09-01 In a culture of the Self that has become progressively more skeptical and materialistic we spare little thought for the great ideals courage contemplation and compassion that once gave life meaning Here Mark Edmundson makes an impassioned attempt to defend the value of these ancient ideals and to resurrect Soul in the modern world

Strength of Mind Jacob L. Goodson, 2018-09-19 Higher education in the twenty first century should bring together freedom and knowledge with courage and hope Why these four concepts As Goodson argues in Strength of Mind higher education in the twenty first century offers preparation for ordinary life Freedom and knowledge serve as the conditions for cultivating courage and hope within one s ordinary life More specifically courage and hope ought to be understood as the virtues required for enjoying ordinary life If college educated citizens wish to hold onto the concepts of courage and hope however then both courage and hope need to be understood as intellectual virtues As a moral virtue courage has become outdated As a theological virtue hope violates the logic of the golden mean Focusing on intellectual virtues also requires shifting from moral perfectionism to rational perfectionism Rational perfectionism involves keeping impossible demands in view for oneself while constantly and continually striving for one s unattained but attainable self Goodson defends these arguments by learning from the bits of wisdom found within American Transcendentalism Emerson Cavell German Idealism Kant Hegel Jewish philosophy Maimonides Spinoza Putnam neo pragmatism Putnam Rorty West post modern theories about pedagogy Nietzsche Foucault Rorty and secular accounts of perfectionism Murdoch Cavell

Evangelism in an Age of Despair Andrew Root, 2025-03-11 Evangelism is a contested even conflicted word But churches are declining in numbers and resources What if we aren t thinking about evangelism in the right way culturally or theologically This book contextualizes evangelism in our late modern times and reimagines what the call to outreach means in today s world Our sad times are made sadder by the realization that our all out pursuit of happiness has made us stressed anxious lonely and depressed says leading practical theologian Andrew Root The French thinker Michel de Montaigne taught us to focus on making ourselves happy but Blaise Pascal pointed out that we are creatures of soul as much as self so happiness does not satisfy Root offers a vision for how a theology of consolation can shape a hopeful approach to evangelism We all need consolation others to care for us in our sadness if we can find such a minister and lean into our sorrow we will find the presence of Jesus Christ Root uses a fictional church to show rather than tell us how consolation evangelism works For support he looks to the ministries of Gregory of Nyssa and his sister Macrina Jean Gerson Johann von Staupitz and Martin Luther who all contend that consolation is central to our transformation into the life of God

The Wounded Angel Paul Lakeland, 2017 In this unique book readers are taken on a journey to explore the role of the imagination in the face of mystery whether it be the mystery of God whose full reality lies beyond our earthly horizons or the deepest mysteries of life hinted at in the work of fiction By attending to a series of novels Paul Lakeland proposes serious fiction as an antidote to the failure of the religious imagination today and shows how literature might lead the secular mind at least to the threshold of mystery Publisher description University and Society Ágnes Kövér,Gaby Franger,2019 What role can the university play in the broader community or society in which it is embedded Must it remain segregated in the halls of science and knowledge which tower above the community This book examines the growing number of questions and concerns around university community relations by exploring widely accepted theories and practices and placing them under new light

Why We Are Restless Benjamin Storey,Jenna Silber Storey,2021-04-06 No one seems to be happy with the present That loathing of the present is understandable The present moment in modern life is hard to love or even to grasp For the modern present is a state of constant motion Perpetual moral social and psychic revolution is the price we pay for our unprecedented liberty equality and prosperity Though we rightly prize those great political goods having our world turned upside down every morning makes us all of us uneasy and some of us miserable We exacerbate our unease by our failure to recognize it With our ritual insistence that we are perfectly content to go with the flow we deny even the existence of our disquiet We refuse to see what time it is and we refuse to see ourselves How to Defend Humane Ideals James Robert

Flynn,2000-01-01 One of the principal moral and psychological problems of our time is whether humane ideals can be defended Loss of faith in the objectivity of ethics has encouraged a sense of hopelessness The notion that no ideal is better than any other that a humane commitment has no rational advantage over Nietzsche s contempt for ordinary people has been accused of leaving our civilization without self confidence or a purpose James R Flynn rejects attempts to salvage ethical objectivity as futile and counterproductive Instead he uses philosophical analysis to demonstrate the relevance of logic and evidence to moral debate He then uses modern social science to refute racists Social Darwinists Nietzsche and the meritocracy thesis of The Bell Curve Flynn concludes that the great post Enlightenment project justice for all races and classes the reduction of inequality and the abolition of privilege retains its moral dignity and relevance The New
