Christophe Honoré David A. Gerstner, Julien Nahmias, 2015-12-01 Studies Honor as an auteur who intervenes in French filmmaking practices and culture with a queer camera style French filmmaker Christophe Honor challenges audiences with complex cinematic form intricate narrative structures and aesthetically dynamic filmmaking But the limited release of his films outside of Europe has left him largely unknown to U S audiences In Christophe Honor A Critical Introduction authors David A Gerstner and Julien Nahmias invite English speaking scholars and cin astes to explore Honor s three most recognized films Dans Paris 2006 Les Chansons d amour 2007 and La Belle personne 2008 the trilogy Gerstner and Nahmias analyze Honor s filmmaking as the work of a queer auteur whose cinematic engagement with questions of family death and sexual desire represent new ground for queer theory Considering each of the trilogy films in turn the authors take a close look at Honor s cinematic technique and how it engages with France s contemporary cultural landscape With careful attention to the complexity of Honor s work they consider critically contested issues such as the filmmaker s cinematic strategies for addressing AIDS the depth of his LGBTQ politics his representations of death and sexual desire and the connections between his films and the New Wave Anchored by a comprehensive interview with the director the authors incorporate classical and contemporary film theories to offer a range of cinematic interventions for thinking queerly about the noted film author Christophe Honor A Critical Introduction reconceptualizes the relationship between film theory and queer theory by moving beyond predominant literary and linguistic models focusing instead on cinematic technique Students and teachers of queer film will appreciate this thought provoking volume

Contemporary Directors' Cinema Jacob Leigh, 2024-12-12 Contemporary Directors Cinema refreshes the argument about the role of the director through the practice of evaluative criticism The book identifies what makes nine recent films successful achievements by their directors and collaborators Each chapter gives some context for the director s work but the central argument focuses on the style form and themes of each film while explicating aspects of point of view and tone Contemporary Directors Cinema argues that in each of its nine case studies the director s work is central to the achievement of economy unity eloquence subtlety depth vigour vividness and intensity By offering critical readings of nine films from mainstream film culture Contemporary Directors Cinema demonstrates that cinema remains vital as a directors medium The films discussed in this book are Pain and Glory 2019 Shoplifters 2018 Parasite 2019 The White Ribbon 2009 Les Chansons d amour 2007 The Bling Ring 2013 The Great Beauty 2013 Leviathan 2014 and Winter Sleep 2014

Exploring the Archived Web during a Highly Transformative Age Sophie Gebeil, Jean-Christophe Peyssard, 2024-10-01 Given recent global crises the imperative to preserve and analyze online content has never been more vital to enhancing our comprehension of contemporary changes This book the outcome of the 5th international RESAW conference that convened experts from fifty disciplines across seventeen countries in Marseille in June 2023 tackles the multifaceted challenges of web archiving It underscores the dual roles of web archiving as cultural heritage and as essential source material for researchers delving into contemporary events and the evolution of digital culture Through twenty chapters it explores the development of web archiving and examines how technical cultural geopolitical societal and environmental shifts impact its conception study and dissemination

The Oxford Handbook of Universal Grammar Ian Roberts, 2016-12-22 This handbook provides a critical guide to the most central proposition in modern linguistics the notion generally known as Universal Grammar that a universal set of structural principles underlies the grammatical diversity of the world's languages Part I considers the implications of Universal Grammar for philosophy of mind and philosophy of language and examines the history of the theory Part II focuses on linguistic theory looking at topics such as explanatory adequacy and how phonology and semantics fit into Universal Grammar Parts III and IV look respectively at the insights derived from UG inspired research on language acquisition and at comparative syntax and language typology while part V considers the evidence for Universal Grammar in phenomena such as creoles language pathology and sign language The book will be a vital reference for linguists philosophers and cognitive scientists

Feminist Politics, Intersectionality and Knowledge Cultivation Radhika Govinda, 2025-02-11 In Feminist Politics Intersectionality and Knowledge Cultivation Radhika Govinda engages with intersectionality as critical theory as critical methodology and as critical pedagogy to make sense of feminist politics in India and beyond and knowledge making on feminist politics as such In doing so she makes a case for theory making conducting empirical research and classroom teaching to be understood as integral parts of knowledge cultivation each feeding into the other Differently put the book encapsulates Govinda's engagement spanning fifteen years and four case studies exploring what insights an intersectional lens throws up and how these insights complicate our understandings of marginality privilege and solidarity in the field of women's and gender studies in feminist classrooms in women's and social movements in particular NGO led feminist activism state led development initiatives and digital feminist campaigns and in everyday social relations in rural and urban spaces Uncovering interrogating and disrupting the politics of coloniality and feminist complicity is an important running thread in the book Through a reflexive account of her own location and practice in the academy at the cusp of the global north and the global south Govinda highlights the importance of being attentive to intersectional positionality and to the contextual specificities of engaging in feminist politics and knowledge making in the age of global neoliberalism

Communicative Efficiency Natalia Levshina, 2022-11-17 All living beings try to save effort and humans are no exception This groundbreaking book shows how we save time and energy during communication by unconsciously making efficient choices in grammar lexicon and phonology It presents a new theory of communicative efficiency the idea that language is designed to be as efficient as possible as a system of communication The new framework accounts for the diverse manifestations of communicative efficiency across a typologically broad range of languages using various corpus based and statistical approaches to explain speakers' bias towards efficiency The author's unique interdisciplinary expertise allows her to provide rich evidence from a broad range of language sciences She integrates diverse insights from over a hundred years of research into this comprehensible new theory which she presents step by step in clear and accessible language It is essential reading for language scientists cognitive scientists and anyone interested in language use and communication Water and Water-Related Phenomena in the Old Testament Wisdom Literature Kivatsi Jonathan Kavusa, 2019-10-31 Kivatsi Jonathan Kavusa addresses a gap in the field of ecological readings of the Old Testament exploring the theme of water in the Wisdom books including the often ignored deuterocanonical works Kavusa focuses on both the negative and positive potential of water drawing in particular on four of the Earth Bible principles intrinsic worth interconnectedness voice and purpose Kavusa begins with a summary of the extant studies and literature reviews on water and water related motifs in the Old Testament He then analyses the books of Job Proverbs Ecclesiastes and the Deutero canonical wisdom examining the various references to water as life giving or life threatening entities and expanding upon the themes of water management and sustainability the intrinsic worth of nature and the unpredicable chaotic state of water This volume concludes with several insights for ecological responsibility and valuable wisdom for an eco theological perspective both in Kavusa's African context and with a more universal application The 3 Regional Human Rights Courts in Context Laurence Burgorgue-Larsen, 2024-02-28 At specific moments in the history of Africa Europe and Latin America each region decided to create supranational jurisdictions to protect human rights These are in chronological order the European Court of Human Rights the Inter American Court of Human Rights and the African Court on Human and Peoples Rights While each has been the subject of important dedicated monographs no major study has analysed both the institutional and jurisprudential issues of all three regional systems The 3 Regional Human Rights Courts in Context Justice That Cannot Be Taken for Granted is the first book to offer a comprehensive comparison of the three systems Rather than merely juxtaposing analogous features the book considers how the three courts operate as parts of a greater integrated whole Similarities and differences between the courts are illuminated alongside historical political and sociological insights in addition to the book's primary legal focus Close analysis of the processes by which the courts came into being makes it clear that regardless of distinct political cultural or other variances states on each of the three continents have chafed against international supervision The book also debunks the common belief that after the Second World War the thrust of human rights initiatives was so powerful that states no longer need to discuss them Justice cannot be taken for granted a position further supported by the book's analysis of how each court has evolved and how their rulings have been implemented Laurence Burgorgue Larsen's dynamism and multidisciplinary approach makes it possible to truly understand the stakes behind the institutional and jurisprudential developments of the three regional human rights courts This is a book that will interest not only legal practitioners but also specialists in international relations human rights and countless other fields Backpacker, 2001-03 Backpacker brings the outdoors straight to the reader's doorstep inspiring and enabling them to go more places and enjoy nature more often The authority on active adventure Backpacker is the world's first GPS enabled magazine and the only magazine whose editors personally test the hiking trails camping gear and survival tips they publish Backpacker's Editors Choice Awards an industry honor recognizing design feature and product innovation has become the gold standard against which all other outdoor industry awards are measured The Philosopher's Index ,2007 Vols for 1969 include a section of abstracts
