Oliver Jeffers Martin Salisbury,2025-07-24 A phenomenon of 21st century bookmaking Oliver

Jeffers has carved an extraordinary career that shows no sign of slowing. Still only in his forties he has published an array of hugely popular books both as illustrator and author-illustrator. This overview of his life and work so far charts his passion for the environment and his quest to understand humanity's major challenges and the impact this has had on his creative and intellectual output. The list of Jeffers's accomplishments is long and glittering: he has held numerous one-man shows in both the UK and the USA and was appointed an MBE in 2022 for services to the arts. Most importantly, however, he has tirelessly pushed the boundaries of what a picturebook can be. His regular exploration of existential issues, whether through illustration or other media such as site-specific installation or film, has exerted a major influence on the practice of authorial picturebook making. This addition to Thames Hudson's acclaimed Illustrators series is the first book to focus closely on Oliver Jeffers's practice as an illustrator, offering an in-depth analysis of his processes, influences, styles, and subjects as they have changed over time.

The Reading Teacher's Book of Lists Jacqueline E. Kress, Edward B. Fry, 2015-10-26. The essential handbook for reading teachers, now aligned with the Common Core. The Reading Teacher's Book of Lists is the definitive instructional resource for anyone who teaches reading or works in a K-12 English language arts-related field. Newly revised and ready for instant application, this top seller provides up-to-date reading, writing, and language content in more than 240 lists for developing targeted instruction, plus section briefs linking content to research-based teaching practices. This new sixth edition includes a guide that maps the lists to specific Common Core standards for easy lesson planning and features fifty brand-new lists on academic and domain-specific vocabulary, foundation skills, rhyming words, second language development, context clues, and more. This edition also includes an expanded writing section that covers registers, signal and transition words, and writers' craft. Brimming with practical examples, key words, teaching ideas, and activities that can be used as is or adapted to students' needs, these lists are ready to differentiate instruction for an individual student, small group, or planning multilevel instruction for your whole class. Reading is the center of all school curricula due to recent state and federal initiatives, including rigorous standards and new assessments. This book allows you to skip years of curating content and dive right into the classroom armed with smart, relevant, and effective plans. Develop focused learning materials quickly and easily. Create unit-specific, Common Core-aligned lesson plans. Link classroom practice to key research in reading, language arts, and learning. Adapt ready-made ideas to any classroom or level. It's more important than ever for students to have access to quality literacy instruction. Timely, up-to-date, and distinctively smart, The Reading Teacher's Book of Lists should be on every English language arts teacher's desk, librarian's shelf, literacy coach's resource list, and reading professor's radar.

Starting Strong Katrin L. Blamey, Katherine A. Beauchat, 2016. Starting Strong shows teachers how to use four proven instructional approaches: standards-based, evidenced-based, assessment-based, and student-based, to improve their teaching practice in all areas of early literacy. Authors Katrin Blamey and Katherine Beauchat draw on their years of experience and early literacy expertise to guide you in figuring out what to teach and how to find the most instructionally sound method to teach it They help you determine the instructional needs of your classroom and take full advantage of what you know about your students so you can engage them in learning With chapters on oral language vocabulary phonological awareness word recognition comprehension and writing skills this comprehensive book explains each skill and provides research based strategies for targeting each area Supported by evidence based research and aligned to key tenets of the Common Core the book also includes classroom tested activities and children s literature suggestions for each area of literacy Starting Strong is an essential resource that any early literacy teacher or coach using a balanced literacy approach can use to build a solid foundation for their students

Theorising Oliver Jeffers' Picturebooks Jade Dillon-Craig, 2025-10-16 Theorising Oliver Jeffers Picturebooks From How to Catch a Star to Now examines semiotic affective and metafictional storytelling in Oliver Jeffers postmodern picturebooks from a multi theoretical approach This volume provides fresh insight into Jeffers iconotextual narratives through textual and visual analysis exploring how his multimodal texts construct childhood and evoke emotional resonances The book deconstructs the postmodernity of these narratives highlighting Jeffers contemporary methods of storytelling through an exploration of the texts metafictional and self reflective elements From How to Catch a Star 2004 to Where to Hide a Star 2024 this book journeys through the mindscapes of Jeffers design and analyses the nuances of metafictional storytelling from a postmodern perspective
